What Do You See?

A Magic Slide-and-Find Book

By Renata Bueno

Do you see a triangle or a fish? Is that an apple tree or a raspberry bush? Slide the magic picture finder across the page to reveal many colorful, whimsical images in this fun, interactive book. Young children will enjoy unscrambling the pictures—including a camel, a floppy hat, a house, and a zebra—which will delight and satisfy their curious minds. What Do You See? encourages the development of fine motor and visual comprehension skills, and is sure to be a favorite! A storage pocket for the picture finder and an answer key with helpful labels are included. ©

Alice Ate an Apple

The World of Letters

By Anne-Marie Labrecque • Illustrated by Mathieu Dionne St-Arneault

The perfect next-step book for young children who have learned their ABCs, Alice Ate an Apple is a colorful romp through the world of uppercase, lowercase, and even cursive letters—from apples to zebras! Each engaging spread highlights a letter, has a sentence that includes the featured letter in its various forms, and provides a memorable image for enhanced learning. Budding readers can also develop their observation skills by counting how many times the letter appears in the sentence. Handy hints and an answer key reinforce reading confidence in this bright, visually dynamic book. ©
