comBEL

Welcome home!

Here comes a new Combel catalogue—imagine it as an open house full of books and cozy corners to play, read, and learn in good company. Here, in our home, every room is a new book to explore, a space where children are always the main characters, and where everything is designed for them—tailored to every age and every personality: a book for every identity.

Last season, we opened the doors to an irresistible new title for the youngest readers: Good Morning; Dudús! A book by Patricia Geis that's much more than just a book! It turns into the Dudús' house, with doors, windows, and a thousand charming little details. An ideal home for that moment when children begin to discover the joy of pretend play—ultimately, a book that sparks imagination, curiosity, and a love of storytelling. Opening it and starting to play go hand in hand!

Literature is full of buildings brimming with magic: after all, who wouldn't want to spend some time at Villa Villekulla, where anything is possible? Or become a wizard's apprentice at Hogwarts? And who wouldn't want to cross the threshold of the House of Usher to feel fear—if only for a moment?

In our case, the big surprise we'd like to share takes place in a very special location. It all begins in Damir's antique shop. The old antiquarian has all sorts of curious junk there—but be careful if you open the trunk hidden in the corner of the shop, because you'll discover... Wait, don't you know what a Ticnik is yet? Oh, then get ready! This new comic series for early readers is off to a strong start, and we're sure it won't disappoint. What's our guarantee? The authors: Meritxell Martí and Xavier Salomó, experts in house-themed stories like The Amazing Creepy Granny House and The Amazing Creepy Grandpa House.

Pop-up books also have a special place in this collection, and this time they celebrate our most beloved traditions: with Three Kings' Night, Oriol Garcia Molsosa and Christian Inaraja invite us to experience the most magical night of the year in three dimensions.

And of course, we couldn't leave out our contribution to the world of picture books—one of the most beloved genres in children's literatura with Peter's 7 Secrets. Going from house to house, Peter, a mischievous yet endearing six-year-old, invites us to open doors that reveal seven secrets—each one as funny as it is familiar. With playful surprises and a wink on every page, Cristina Losantos delivers a story full of charm and guaranteed laughs.

When it comes to literary spaces, we can't help but return to the Blue Forest: What new adventure awaits Bitmax this time? And from the same authors, there's a new book starring Rob & Ot—those lovable troublemakers!

Indeed, Copons & Fortuny—cornerstones of the Combel universe—continue to grow their community of loyal (and happy!) readers every day.

At our publishing house, we know that making children's books is much more than just publishing stories: it's about creating emotional and cultural experiences for children, grounded in the solid foundations of entertaining reading, and with careful attention to every detail. That's why we treat each project with dedication—from the first idea to the moment it reaches a reader's hands—and we believe that taking care of books also means taking care of the people who make them possible. For this reason, we see accompanying our authors and illustrators as an essential part of the process. Likewise, we deeply value the role of cultural mediators—booksellers, librarians, teachers, journalists—and fellow publishers and partners, who help bring these stories to life and share them with the world.

That's why we sincerely thank you for your trust and collaboration, and we hope this catalogue will be a helpful and inspiring tool for you. Ultimately, we all share the same mission: to make reading a vibrant, living space.

So open the door, turn the pages, and make yourselves at home—you're among friends!

Rob & Ot

A new graphic novel series for children aged 5 + created by the bestselling authors Copons & Fortuny. Uma is given two robots: Rob and Ot don't know anything at all. And thanks to Uma, her dog Buba and her friend Mouse, they will learn what the world is like because they will explain it to them step by step. The comical situations arise from the misunderstandings caused by the robots' ignorance and lack of knowledge. That's where the adventure comes in, because the greatest adventure is learning!

Ticniks Series

Ticniks aren't just any toys. To activate them, all you have to do is give them a hug and recite a secret formula. But beware: each Ticnik comes with 3 rules that must be followed to the letter... or chaos will break loose. Whatever happens, after 24 hours, everything goes back to normal.

Simple, short, illustrated stories with memorable characters and perfect, zippy pacing to help newly independent readers. A nice bridge between picture books and chapter books, and keep budding readers entertained. Guaranteed mischief from the Martí-Salomó tandem!

Ticniks 1 Dina

Henrietta finds the perfect gift for her granddaughter Tina: a mysterious box of plush toys called Ticniks. Just hug them and say the magic word... but don't forget the 3 rules — or chaos will follow!

What's Wrong With You, Bitmax?

Lately Bitmax has been a bit down and out. To cheer him up, the people of the Blue Forest come up with lots of ideas. But nobody thinks that Bitmax is a robot and the solution is as easy as changing the battery. When they realise this, they set off on an excursion to the robot factory to get the spare part and many others for what might be helpful in the future.

Where Is The Water?

All of a sudden, the Blue Forest river dries up. Little by little, the inhabitants of the Blue Forest despair. They need to know what has happened and fix it. After all sorts of hypotheses and searches, they find it: some beavers have altered the course of the river because they have built a dam with logs. It won't be easy to get them to undo it. And what's more, Evo, as always, complicates things!

Quisicosas takes a fresh look at everyday objects. Playing with the shapes of a potty and a pencil, each book allows young children to explore, use their perception skills and make sense of the world around them. While guessing which are the possible uses of such ordinary objects, the books work on vocabulary, creativity, teamwork and empathy. Thus a potty is transformed into a cooking plate, a hat or a sailing boat. A pencil becomes a flower and space rocket or containers for precious things. In the end, the little seekers will find out which is their most common use!

The Leap of the Frog

A new book from EcoSphere to help young readers understanding why the Earth is warming and what we can do about it.

The boiled frog syndrome, as an analog, is often used to describe what happens when a problem develops so slowly that its damage is not easily perceived immediately and this lack of awareness results in no or delayed reactions to prevent or reverse the damage it causes. Earthlings: Prehistory

Six million years ago the Earth was shaken by a sudden climate change. The lush forests of Africa became savannahs. Primates, who until then lived in the trees, learned to live on the ground and to walk on two legs in order to be able to stand in the undergrowth and see into the distance. They learned to think, to invent, to communicate, to imagine; they became human. Equipped with stone tools and mastering the fire, they set out to travel the world.

Daniel Detective Trilogy

Daniel, the protagonist of this highly illustrated chapter books, takes solving mysteries very seriously. Growing readers will love following along as the boy detective, accompanied by his trusty dog, Tando, collects clues and applies his problem-solving skills to solve his cases: Who has eaten the cheese sandwich? What mystery surrounds the locked box that he has found in the shed of the house?...

Solving the mystery alongside Daniel is half the fun of the detective stories. Jarque gives you enough clues to figure it out! Follow them, grab your notebook and start jotting down notes!

Victory

Nine years have passed since Bambú launched the first title of "Victory", a collection of short stories on personal growth for children to discover the pleasure of reading.

Each title tackles a key issue for this age group in a very funny and easy-going way: selfishness, sincerity, personal hygiene, good manners, nightmares, violence, swearing, consumerism or hyperconnectivity. Simple and easy to understand, texts come with amazing illustrations by Cristina Losantos to stimulate the imagination. We are now delighted to add this series to the Combel catalogue with a new title about picky eaters.

Agus & Monsters

My name is Agus Pianola. You didn't know this, but sooner or later we were bound to be friends. Until recently I was a rather normal kid: I went to school, lost my homework, wolfed down pizza... But the day I met Mr Flat, everything changed.

Ah, of course. You still don't know who Ms Flat is, do you? I'll just tell you that he's a monster and that ever since he moved into my room, the world is not only more fun, but it's also a better place. Better, but with tons of trouble!
