she wrote a Spiegel Bestseller in 2007. She has won the Corine International Book Prize and Grimme Prize. This is her second collaboration with Little Gestalten.

Anton Hallmann was born in Brandenburg, Germany, and studied illustration at the Hamburg University of Applied Science. He primarily works in editorial illustration for newspapers like Die Zeit, Süddeutsche Zeitung, and FAZ. Anton currently lives in Stockholm. After Explore the World, he takes our readers on their second adventure with this new title.

Enter the depths of the rainforest, the lungs of our planet that are home to the richest variety of animal and plant species.

Our beloved characters Emma and Louis go on a trip through the wildest nature of our planet: the rainforest. They visit this lush green world of wonders that is full of the strongest, kindest, and strangest plants and animals. They find out about the rainforest's endangered species, such as the forest elephant or the Sumatran tiger. They discover monkeys, butterflies, flowers and trees that grow around trees, frogs that can fly, and plants that work together with animals in symbiosis.

Besides the immense diversity in the jungle's flora and fauna, Emma and Louis learn about the habitat, geography, the climate, and the people who live and work there—and you can learn it too! Come along and Explore the Rainforest.

newspapers like Die Zeit, Süddeutsche Zeitung, or FAZ and clients like Google, Lufthansa, Deutsche Bahn and others. He currently lives in Stockholm. Explore the World is his first kids book.

Explore far-flung countries, the highest mountains, the deepest seas, and even outer space with Explore the World.

Across hundreds of years, explorers drew maps and gathered expansive knowledge of geography, climate, flora and fauna. The expeditions that shaped the world we are living in are gathered in this illustrated compendium. Explore the World features a variety of explorers, from Europeans searching for new trade routes to Polynesians exploring the many islands in the South Pacific. Sail with the vikings, meet the sherpas climbing up Mount Everest, and get to know the astronauts who dared to fly into space. Explore the World shines a light on the people that made these adventures possible with their knowledge of land and language, and tells the stories of teamwork, bravery and curiosity.

“A fascinating look at how, and importantly, why, humans explore and discover, with good touches and caveats about treatment of indigenous people, oppression and colonisation, those who aren't credited with discovery or who have been forgotten, the different roles of women in history, and the importance of respecting the natural world and its people.” MINERVA READS

Whatever the Weather

Holding a First Class Honours BSc in Zoology and a position as Senior Scientific Fellow of the Zoological Society, Steve Parker knows the natural world. When it comes to science his formula is simple:

“Remember the two I’s, information and imagination.” He has co-authored and edited over 300 nonfiction titles. This is his second book with Little Gestalten.

Illustrator and animator Caroline Attia has lent her whimsical style to ELLE, The New York Times, Harvard Magazine, Pictoplasma, and other prominent publications. Her film work has earned critical acclaim at the Istanbul Animation Festival and grants from the Centre National Du Cinéma. After The Big Book of Treasures, this is her second book with Little Gestalten.

How is fog formed? What causes a rainbow? Why do thunder and lightning always come as a pair?

Curious children can often ask questions that might even be difficult for adults to answer, but Whatever the Weather knows the facts. Bursting with colorful illustrations, examples, and anecdotes, this book explains complex processes in a snackable way. Following two friendly characters and their little dog from page to page, young readers can learn about how temperature forecasting works, how some animals have an innate ability to predict the weather, and the effects of global warming. Come rain or shine, Whatever the Weather sees past the seasons and explains the world of weather in all its wonder.

“A bland, sketchy overview that also lacks that now-necessary sense of urgency.” KIRKUS REVIEWS

Author of over 100 children's books, Alicia Klepeis joins forces with Little Gestalten again after the success of Animal Allstars.

Illustrator Grace Helmer reaches beyond her everyday view to create light-toned landscapes. She uses strong brush strokes to create her rich, ethereal oil illustrations.

We all know that polar bears and penguins never meet (except in zoos), but what else do you know about the Arctic and the Antarctic regions?

Did you know that Antarctica is not just the coldest, but also the driest continent on Earth? Have you ever wondered how a polar bear stays warm in the Arctic? Sitting on the most extreme North and South Poles are two of our planet's most mysterious regions, but what similarities and differences do they share?

Penguins & Polar Bears explores the incredible geography of both regions, reveals how polar bears and penguins survive, and introduces the explorers who dared to travel into these unknown spots on Earth.

"A wide-angled view of two forbidding but far from deserted climes."

Making her children's literature debut, Anne Ameri-Siemens is using her experience as an author and journalist. She previously worked for Frankfurter Allgemeine Sonntagszeitung, SZ-Magazin, and German television networks.

Becky Thorns is the talented illustrator behind our acclaimed title The World of Whales. She graduated from Falmouth University with a Fine Art degree in 2015 and now specializes in children's illustration, literary themed works, and calligraphic lettering.

Investigating how some of history's greatest makers, creators, and ideas helped shape the world of today.

Who invented the car, the light bulb, or the jeans you are wearing right now? The things that surround us didn't just appear out of nowhere, they were conceived by talented inventors, scientists, and engineers. While some creations were the result of teamwork and a long time in the lab, others happened by accident. Who Invented This? is a visual journey for children that shows how groundbreaking masters from the past connect with modern technology, culture, and medicine. Expect over 30 inventions and inventors presented through striking illustrations.

SHORTLISTED FOR DEUTSCHER JUGEND-LITERATURPREIS 2021

In Great Numbers introduces children to the fascinating world of numbers and explains how they help us in our daily life.

Imagine a world without numbers. How would we ask for three scoops of ice cream? Or know whether we've got 60 minutes left to play with our friends rather than 60 seconds? Why does a minute have 60 seconds anyway and not 100? Where does zero come from and what language do computers understand? Without the wonderful invention of numbers how would we be able to count, measure, and compare?

Over the centuries, people have conceived more and more clever ways to use numbers to understand the world around us. In Great Numbers is a fun book that will help children realize how fascinating and fun numbers can be.

"A helpful addition to libraries that need attractive books on numbers and the value of mathematics."

Kirsten Bradley is the founder of the Milkwood permaculture farm in Australia. Kirsten, her husband Nick, and a team of educators specialize in courses and workshops about sustainable growth and living. She has previously co-authored an adult book on permaculture and gardening.

Aitch is a Romanian artist whose work is rooted in nature, folklore and fantasy. Her daring patterns, bold colors and quirky characters have seen her work across a range of products including wallpapers, playing cards, ceramics, textiles and books. Her impressive repertoire of clients includes L'Occitane, O2, Elle, and Penguin Random House.

An introduction to easy gardening so you can grow everywhere and anywhere.

Whether you live in the city or the countryside, there are plenty of places you can plant and grow. For a new generation of green fingers there are different ways to bring nature into the home. Make your own pots, build balcony boxes, create your own bird feeders and even get friendly with worms!

Each activity has been carefully written by Kirsten Bradley, a leading practitioner in permaculture for kids and co-founder of the Milkwood permaculture farm in Australia. The simple steps and beautiful spot illustrations make activities fun and easy to follow. The book also features non-activity spreads explaining the importance of why and how nature works. Aitch's folkloric illustrations pay homage to vintage botanical books while giving each page a sense of modern magic.

"The authors' wide-eyed enthusiasm is infectious."

A playful exploration of the great indoors.

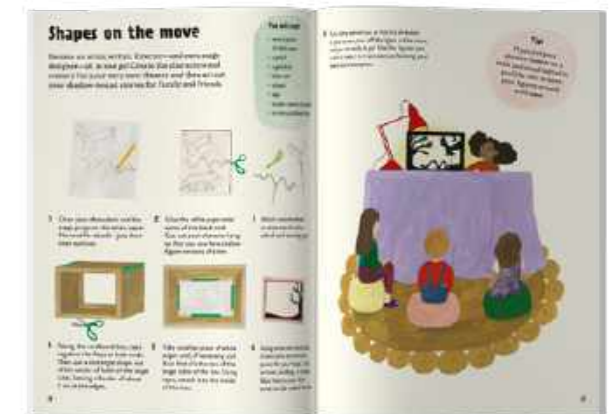

For children, the world is their playground! But sometimes the world is encased by four walls, so it's time to get creative: Let's Play Indoors! offers imaginative and resourceful ways to keep kids amused and inspired with games, crafts, and home-styled costumes inside the house. This book encourages children to take the lead in deciding how to spend their time and is a perfect companion for rainy days or periods spent offline. With simple instructions on how to make paper masks and costumes as well as tips on how to wow friends and family with a shadow puppet performance, Let's Play Indoors! ensures that time spent inside is never wasted.

Ryan Evers is a writer, translator, editor, and language teacher. He also really, really loves DIY and craft activities!

British Illustrator Rachel Victoria Hillis makes botanical-infused illustrations with a playful focus on design and modern gardening. She hopes to positively inspire other people to appreciate the world around them.

A book that encourages children to go and play outside and discover what nature has to offer.

Leave the house and roam into the nature: It is a fascinating place, waiting to be conquered by little ones with curious minds. Whether in the garden, park, or a nearby forest, a closer look at nature will draw out budding architects, their first constructions built from stones, branches, and leaves; a thorough investigation of trees will reveal all kinds of insects; and listening to the animals around will teach their sounds. Let's Play Outdoors! is for a new generation of environmentally conscious children, showing them how to interact with their surroundings in a meaningful way. The activities suggested inspire independent learning about animals, plants, and the weather, as well as how to look after the world.

"A solid, accessible reference book that is fun to peruse."
