

30
YEARS

FOREIGN RIGHTS CATALOGUE

SPRING 2024

Frida Kahlo – the colors of a strong woman

Frida Kahlo is one of the most inspiring women of the 20th century. The Mexican woman actually wanted to become a doctor, but things turned out completely differently. Christine Schulz-Reiss tells sensitively and in detail how Frida Kahlo found painting, about her life and suffering, about politics and success. With her paintings and self-portraits, Frida Kahlo is considered a special representative of surrealism and today has an outstanding place in art history.

NEW

Christine Schulz-Reiss, born in 1956, works as an author for children and young people and as a freelance journalist. In 2004 she was nominated for the Gustav-Heinemann-Friedenspreis.

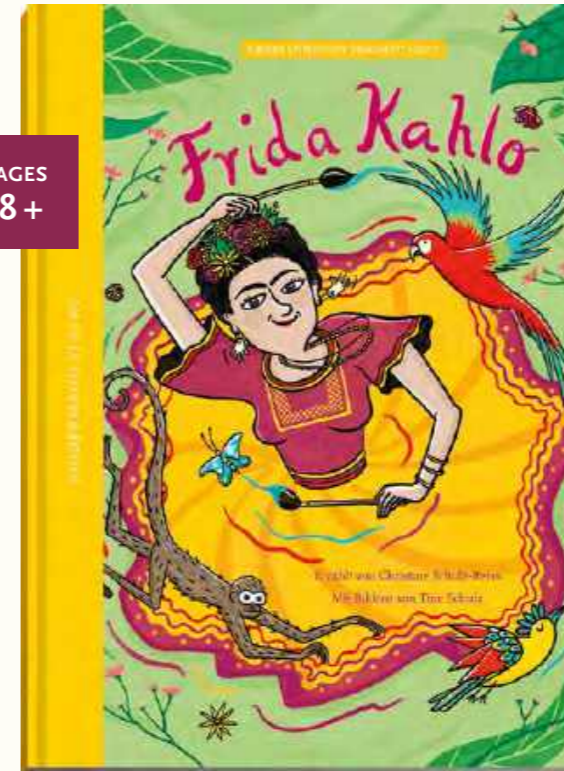

Kristine Schulz, born in Anklam in 1981, first trained as a media designer, worked in design offices and publishing houses and then studied communication design. Since then she has lived on the Baltic Sea and works as a freelance illustrator from Rostock.

The moving life of an artist who went her own way

AGES
8+

Frida Kahlo – the colors of a strong woman
Christine Schulz-Reiss, Tine Schulz
48 p., 18 x 25 cm

- Marie Curie was the first woman to receive the Nobel Prize twice (1903 / 1911)
- Strong female figure in a male-dominated scientific world
- Her life story inspires children to pursue their own dreams

Christian Morgenstern's atmospheric Easter poem

Christian Morgenstern knows how to stage the spring festival with humor and poetry and takes the children on the colorful journey of the Easter Bunny. This cheerful picture book impresses with Pe Grigo's fresh illustrations and puts young and old in a spring-like mood.

Der Osterhas' bringt just ein Ei - da fliegt ein Schmetterling herbei.
Dahinter strahlt das blaue Meer mit Sandstrand vorne und umher.

Pe Grigo, born in 1972, has been drawing since she was two years old. After training and studying, she made drawing her profession and has been illustrating texts for young and old with heart and soul for many years. She lives with her children and cat Proxi in an old yellow house with an apple orchard and a studio under the roof in Bielefeld. She has already illustrated Joseph Eichendorff's "Christmas" in the POETRY FOR CHILDREN series.

Easter Poem
Pe Grigo
28 p., 21 x 28 cm

Ein Ei in jedem Baumkloster sitzt, denn selbst hier ist der dort und wieder.

Einmal leicht im Morgenschein schlief Kutchen auf der Wiese ein.

- An ideal gift for the Easter season
- Humorously and charmingly illustrated
- Encourages counting Easter eggs

Siegfried, the Dragon Slayer

The famous German heroic saga retold

The young king's son Siegfried travels fearlessly through the world. One day he meets a dragon in a linden forest and kills it in battle. He covers his body with the dragon's blood, which makes him invincible. When he learns that the princess Kriemhild has been kidnapped by a dragon, he embarks on an adventurous quest: will he succeed in freeing Kriemhild from the dragon's clutches, and what is the secret of the mysterious dwarf treasure?

Siegfried the dragon slayer
Anna Kindermann, Lena Winkel
40 p., 22 x 30 cm

- An exciting adventure to read aloud for boys and girls
- Serves as a first introduction to the impressive world of sagas
- A captivating story about courage, bravery and love

Anna Kindermann, born in Berlin in 1987, studied and worked in China and France, among other places, before becoming head of marketing and foreign rights at Kindermann Verlag in 2015. In 2020, she took over the management from her mother Barbara Kindermann. "The Twelve Heroic Deeds of Hercules" was Anna Kindermann's debut as an author.

Lena Winkel, born in 1993 in Westerland, studied illustration in Hamburg and Paris. Since 2014, she has been illustrating children's books and picture books for various publishers and self-publishing comics and zines. In 2022, she was a finalist for the Berthold Leibinger Stiftung Comic Award. winkelillustration.tumblr.com

The Emperor's New Clothes

A modern and funny adaptation of the fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen

For the emperor of Youkali, every day is like a dream:

For breakfast, he enjoys mountains of pancakes with maple syrup, elderberry ice cream and sweets. Afterwards he dresses up in his most colourful clothes to take a walk in the magnificent castle garden. He has got everything. Only real friends are missing. But one day two strange dressmakers come to town who make him a promising offer that he can't refuse...

Folker Banik, born 1967 in Kiel, is an actor, speaker, teacher and author. He studied at the Westphalian Drama School in Bochum. He works as a narrator for WDR and Deutschlandfunk. He teaches latin and religion.

Almud Kunert, born in Bayreuth in 1964, first learned in Paris and then studied painting and graphics in Munich. Since 1992 illustrator for various publishing houses and the advertising industry.

AGES
4+

Folker Banik tells with much humour about seemingly boundless naivety, but also about the search for a deeper meaning behind all the superficialities in this world. Almud Kunert's cheerful and charming illustrations bring the events surrounding the emperor alive.

The Emperor's new Clothes
Folker Banik, Almud Kunert
40 p., 21 x 28 cm

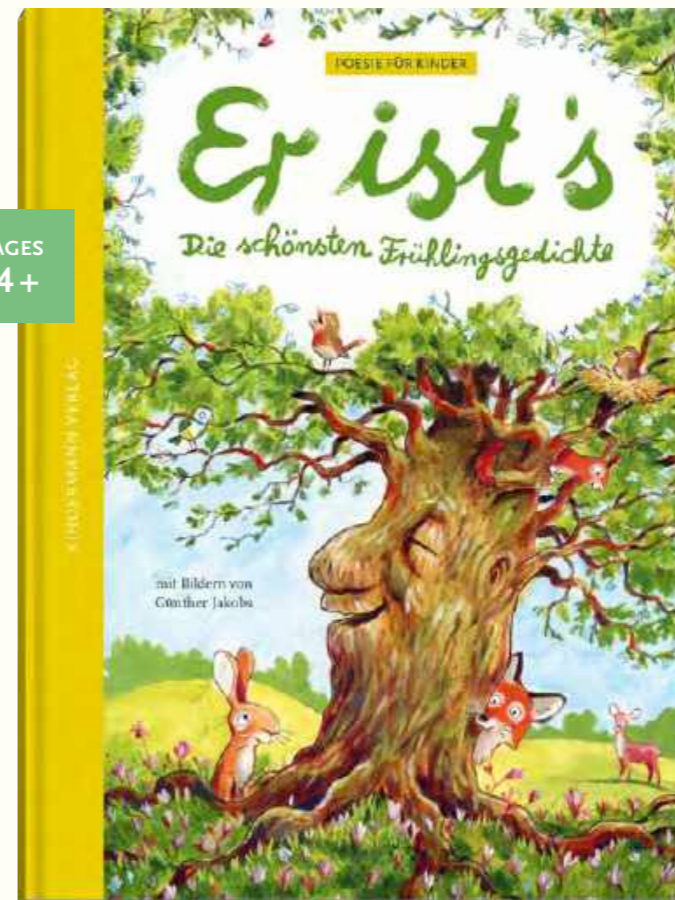

- Stimulates children's imagination and fantasy
- Covers themes such as courage to tell the truth and friendship
- Recommended for use in kindergartens and schools

It's Him – The Most Beautiful Spring Poems

Poets have always celebrated spring: the awakening of nature, the sprouting of flowers after a long winter or the colourful eggs around Easter. Let yourself be enchanted by the poetic spring! Günther Jakob's fresh illustrations capture the cheerfulness of spring in bright colours and will put young and old in an Easter mood.

A poetic collection of the best known spring verses

It's Him – The Most Beautiful Spring Poems
Günther Jakobs
28 p., 21 x 28 cm

Günther Jakobs, born in Bad Neuenahr-Ahrweiler in 1978, first studied illustration and design in Münster, then philosophy. He has been working as an illustrator and author since 2004 and has already designed numerous picture and children's books. He is a member of Münster's Hafenstrasse studio community.

- The ideal Easter gift for young and old
- Charming illustrated poetry collection
- Shapes early understanding of rhymes

Marie Curie – a Woman Changes the World

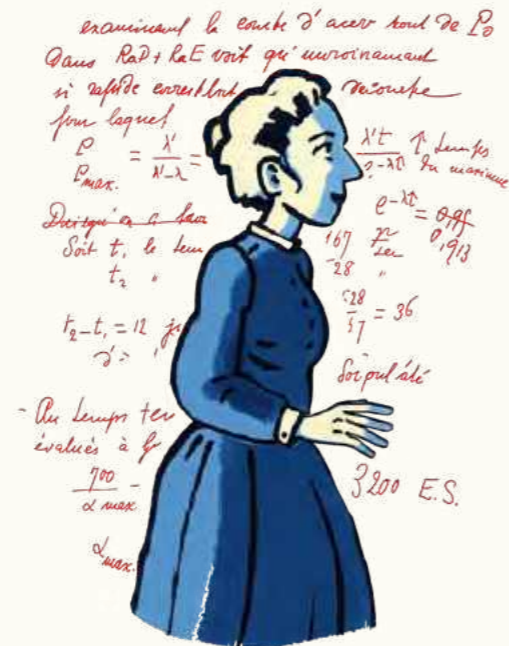

What exactly aroused Marie Curie's curiosity about research and what surprises did the path to becoming a successful scientist hold in store? She coined the term radioactivity and made a significant contribution to the fight against cancer. But not only that: Marie Curie was the first woman to receive the Nobel Prize – twice!

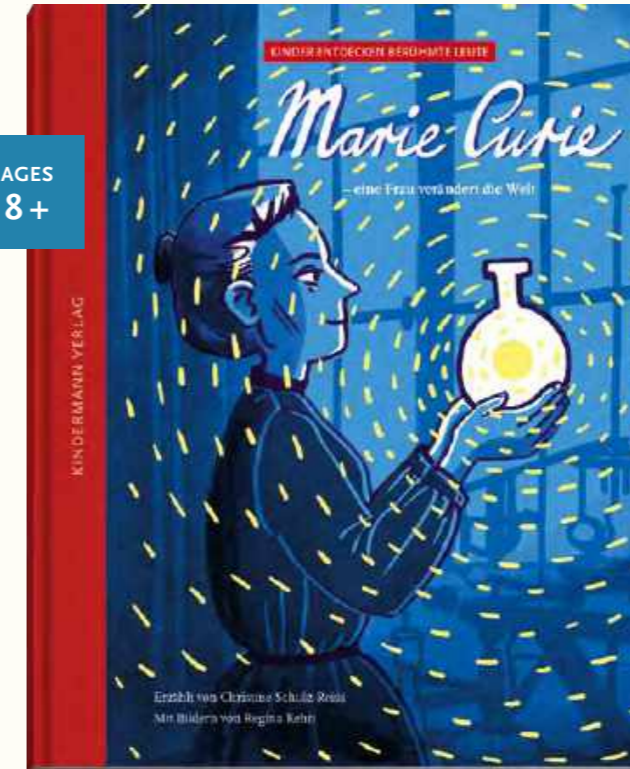

Christine Schulz-Reiss, born in 1956, works as an author for children and young people and as a freelance journalist. In 2004 she was nominated for the Gustav-Heinemann-Friedenspreis.

Regina Kehn was born in Hamburg in 1962 and studied illustration there. In 1989 she received a diploma in the field of children's books. Since then she has been working as a freelance illustrator. She has already received several awards for her work.

A captivating tale of the moving life story of the greatest woman scientist of all time

AGES 8+

In the fourth volume of the series CHILDREN DISCOVER FAMOUS PEOPLE the author Christine Schulz-Reiss reports informatively and vividly on Marie Curie's incredible life and shows young and old readers the career of an impressive woman. Illustrator Regina Kehn traces this exciting life in many detailed insights.

Marie Curie – a woman changes the world
Christine Schulz-Reiss, Regina Kehn
40 p., 21 x 26 cm

- Marie Curie was the first woman to receive the Nobel Prize twice (1903 / 1911)
- Strong female figure in a male-dominated scientific world
- Her life story inspires children to pursue their own dreams

The Heinzelmännchen of Cologne

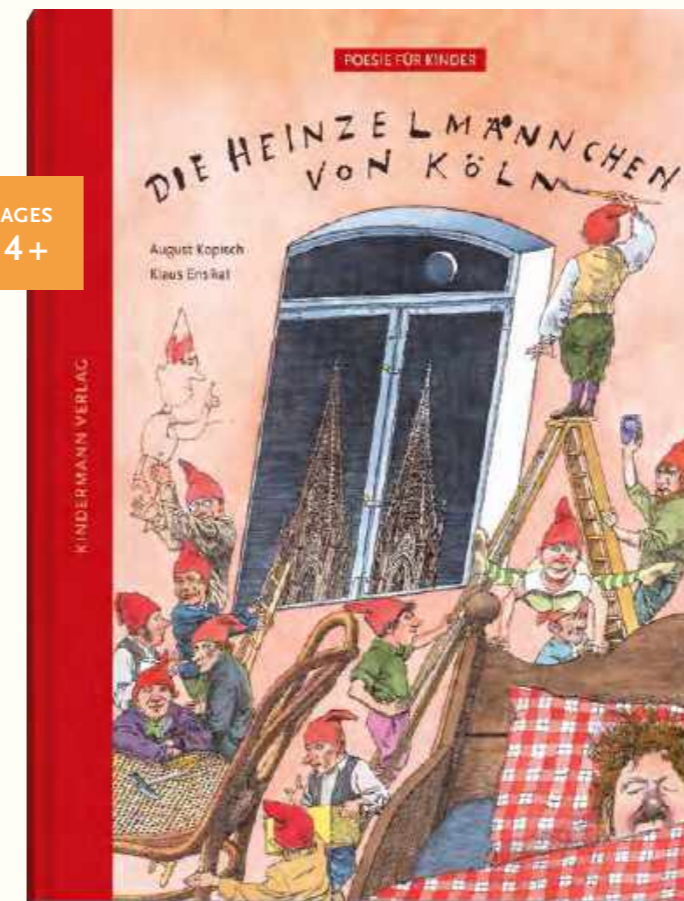

How nice would it be if our work took care of itself? A long time ago, a small people lived in Cologne, the Heinzelmännchen. These little spirits would sneak into people's homes at night and secretly do their work. However, when the tailor's wife played a trick on them in order to see them, they disappeared forever.

A humorous tribute to those who did all the unpleasant work at night

Klaus Ensikat, born in 1937, is one of the best-known contemporary book artists. He has received numerous awards for his children's book illustrations and was awarded the Hans Christian Andersen Medal in 1996 for his complete works.

Cheeky and pointed, the award-winning children's book author Martin Baltscheit tells of the many different facets of love. Complementing the text with her incomparably charming illustrations, Sandra Brandstätter puts the most wonderful feeling in the world to paper, making it accessible to children.

The Heinzelmännchen of Cologne
August Kopisch, Klaus Ensikat
40 p., 21 x 28 cm

- The well-known classic, exceptionally illustrated by Klaus Ensikat
- Strong female figure in a male-dominated scientific world
- Her life story inspires children to pursue their own dreams

Bedtime Stories for the Little Ones

In the series WHAT ARE YOU DREAMING ABOUT? a group of animals experiences all kinds of adventures surrounding dreams and the power of friendship, enchantingly written and illustrated by Julia Nüsch.

An eager dung beetle, that is collecting dreams of others, made the start of the new series. The protagonist of the second volume is Annette the giraffe who is searching for her lost dream. Will she find it? In the following volumes, the children get to know the individual characters around the rhinoceros, giraffe, fox and co. better.

Julia Nüsch, born in Hamburg in 1979, studied illustration at the HAW Hamburg and worked in parallel as a graphic designer and illustrator. Since 2009 she has been freelancing for agencies, publishers and magazines. Julia Nüsch lives in Hamburg. For Kindermann Verlag, she has already illustrated Rilke's »The Panther«. »The Busy Dung Beetle ...« was her debut as an author.

WHAT ARE YOU DREAMING ABOUT?

A Heartwarming Plea for the Belief in Oneself And the Power of Friendship

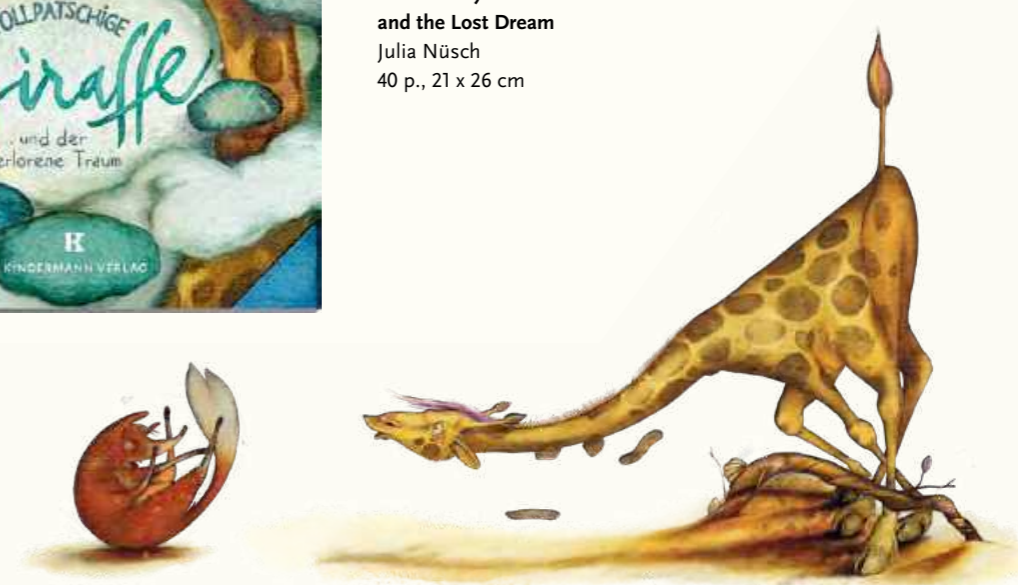

The animals are shocked! Who stole their dreams? Suspicion falls on the lonely dung beetle ... Prejudices, dreaming and the value of friendship – enchantingly written and illustrated by artist Julia Nüsch, celebrating her author-debut with this one.

The Eager Dung Beetle and the Dreams of Others
Julia Nüsch
40 p., 21 x 26 cm

Annette the giraffe has simply forgotten her wonderful dream. Luckily she has great friends that want to help her remember. Will Annette find her dream again and will the other animals succeed in giving the clumsy giraffe new courage?

The Clumsy Giraffe and the Lost Dream
Julia Nüsch
40 p., 21 x 26 cm

- Humorous and sensitive stories to fall asleep to for children from 3 years on
- Child-friendly animal parables about real life
- Lovingly shaped animal-characters, that re-appear in every volume

L for Love

A Picture Book about Tolerance, Diversity and Love

In what way do we actually love?

Anna loves her mum and her dad and they both love Anna. But whether mum loves dad, the cousin loves the kiosk owner or her grandma loves her rabbit – no matter who your heart beats for, every love is unique! This book conveys tolerance and diversity in a sensitive way, without being lecturing.

Martin Baltscheit, born in 1965 in Düsseldorf, studied communication design at Folkwangschule Essen. By now, he works as an author, illustrator, speaker, and director. »The Story of the Lion that could not write« is his best known book. Martin Baltscheit is one of the most important German children's book authors and was honoured with the »Deutscher Jugendliteraturpreis« (German Youth Book Award).

Sandra Brandstätter, born in Salzburg in 1980, studied multimedia art at the FH Salzburg. She lives and works in Berlin as an illustrator, comic author and character designer for animated films and series. »L for Love« already is her second children's book project together with Martin Baltscheit.

AGES
6+

Cheeky and pointed, the award-winning children's book author Martin Baltscheit tells of the many different facets of love. Complementing the text with her incomparably charming illustrations, Sandra Brandstätter puts the most wonderful feeling in the world to paper, making it accessible to children.

L for Love
Martin Baltscheit, Sandra Brandstätter
40 p., 21 x 26 cm

- A loving homage to the diversity of our society
- Variation and tolerance are conveyed in a child-friendly way
- Gives insight into different family constellations and kinds of love

Adam and Eve

A humorous adaption of the world's oldest love story

Adam is bored. Although he lives in a gorgeous garden, in which he named every sprout and animal, being the only human makes him feel lonely. One day Eve shows up. A creature that Adam never saw before – so strong and funny and smart! Together they invent yoga and mango-salad and experience a very special feeling for the first time in the history of humankind: Love. But then a nosy animal appears and puts the paradisiacal life to the test.

Written by award-winning
Children's book author
Martin Baltscheit

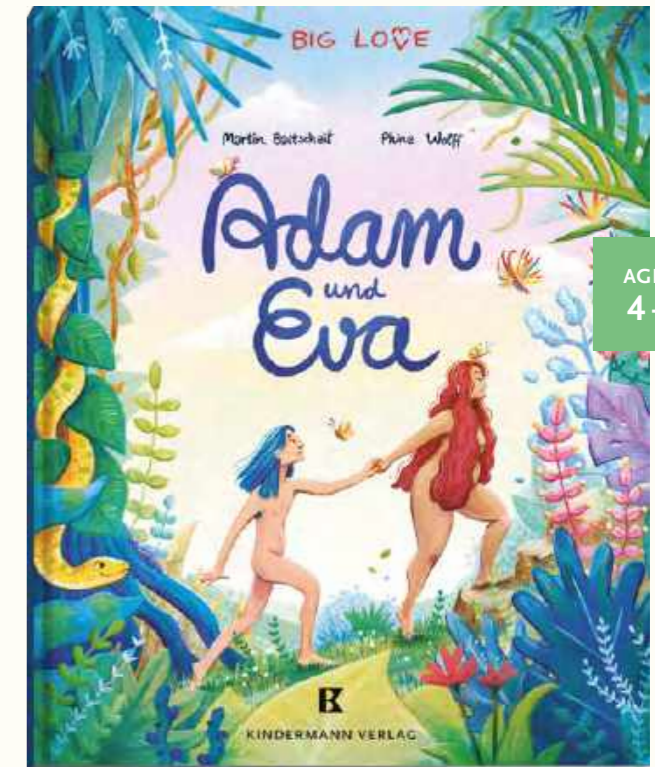

Josephine Wolff, born in 1992 in Berlin, is an illustrator and communication designer majoring in children's and educational media. Besides illustrating children's books, animated movies, and games, she is currently working on her first graphic novel and supports different smart educational thinkers, for example Tetrapix and the Education Innovation Lab.

Award-winning children's book author Martin Baltscheit humorously narrates the story of the first love couple and interprets the biblical tale completely new. Newcomer-illustrator Josephine Wolff brings the lush Garden of Paradise with child-oriented and incredibly colourful paintings to life.

Adam and Eve
Martin Baltscheit, Josephine Wolff
48 p., 21 x 26 cm

The first Book in the Series BIG LOVE, in which Martin Baltscheit pointedly and wittily narrates the World's biggest Love Stories

- A funny tale with added value for the youngest
- A world-renowned story humorously narrated – detached from its biblical context
- Pointed texts and large illustrations support the understanding of the story

Jeanne Antoinette de Pompadour

A powerful book about a young woman, going her own way

Paris, 1721: Jeanne Antoinette is born into a bourgeois family called »Poisson« (engl. fish). But as a young woman she has already made up her mind: She wants to be friends with the king because he is the only one, who can crown her princess. But how does one hook a king? Jeanne Antoinette gets in her pink carriage and stirs up the boring life of King Louis XV.

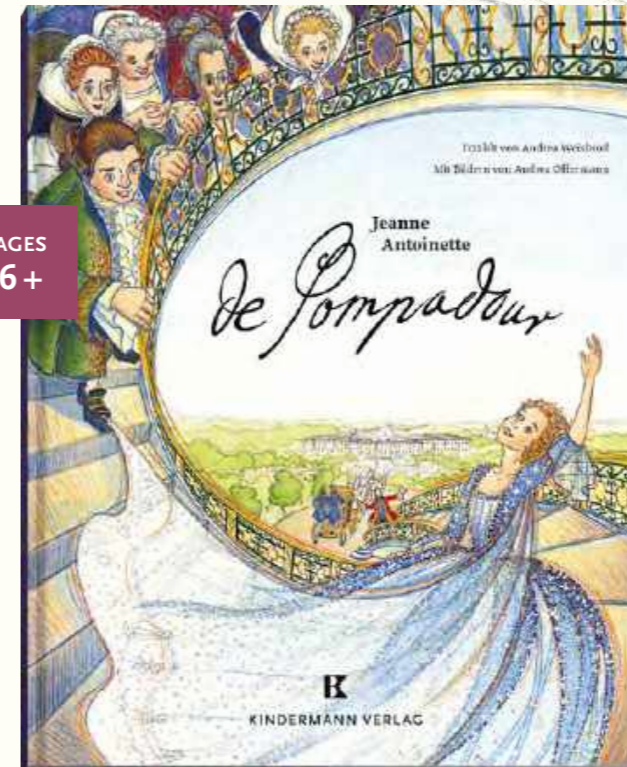

Andrea Weisbrod, born in 1966 in Coblenz, did her doctorate in history on the mistresses' political role in the 18th century. In 2020, she moved from Hamburg to Paris with her family and gained experience in journalism; afterwards, her first novels and children's books got published. As a freelance author and teacher for the German language, she and her husband, their two daughters, and the family-poodle since then find inspiration in this dynamic city.

Andrea Offermann, born in 1980 in Cologne, studied Illustration, Animation, and Printmaking in Los Angeles, Hamburg, and Florence. Since, she mostly works freelance for children's book publishers as well as young adult's book publishers. Her works were repeatedly honoured, including the »Preis der Jugendjury« (Youth Jury Award) of the Austrian Youth Book Award and the »Portfolio Grand Prize« of the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators. She lives in Hamburg with her family.

In Celebration of Madame de Pompadour's
300th Birthday
(Dec. 29, 2021)

With wit and ease author Andrea Weisbrod narrates the swift history of royalty and creates the picture of a cheeky princess that pursues her goals against all odds. Andrea Offermann's fantastic illustrations take all readers into the lush life of the young Madame de Pompadour of the 18th century.

Jeanne Antoinette de Pompadour
Andrea Weisbrod, Andrea Offermann
40 p., 21 x 26 cm

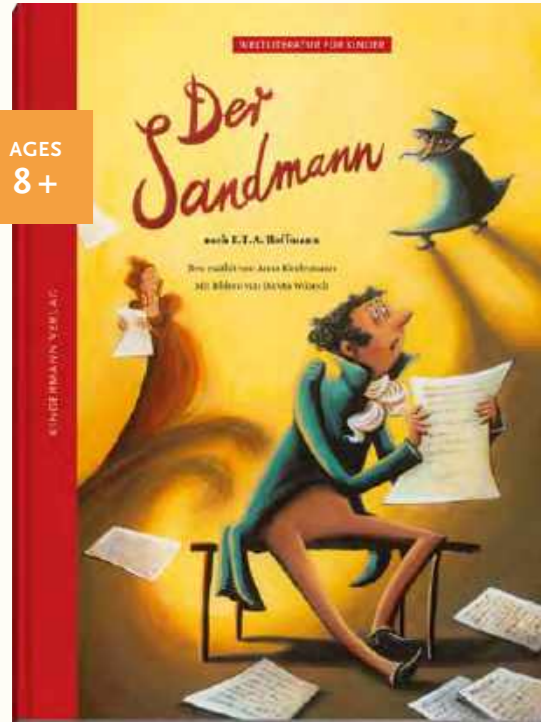

- An unconventional heroine in a special princess-story
- Including a short-biography, glossary, and a delicate recipe
- The charming tale gives children an understanding of the classical century

The Sandmann

after E. T. A. Hoffmann

A captivating story about love and madness

AGES 8+

Whenever little Nathanael is tired, his mother tells him about the mysterious Sandman – an evil man who steals the eyes of naughty children at night and hides them on the moon. When one day the gruesome Coppelius, who seems to resemble the Sandman, enters the family's life, the misfortunes begin to pile up ...

The Sandmann
after E. T. A. Hoffmann
Anna Kindermann, Dorota Wunsch
40 p., 22 x 30 cm

NEW

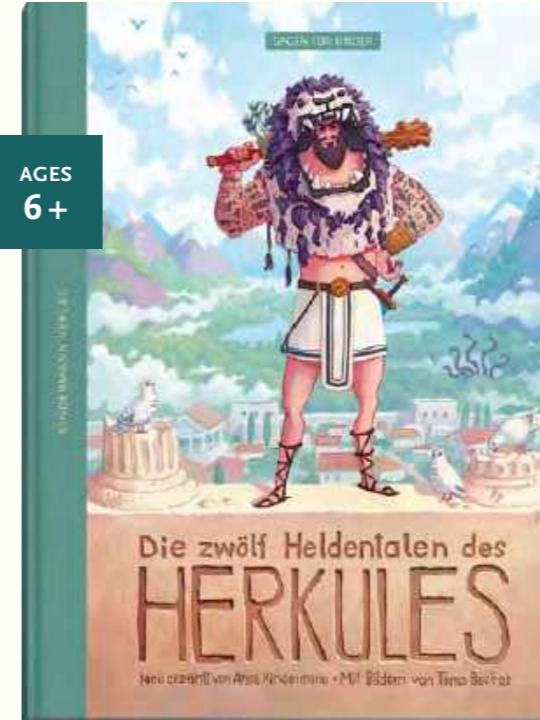

Dorota Wunsch, born in 1962 in Łódź (Poland), studied Art at the Academy of Fine Arts in her birth town before coming to Germany via a guest scholarship for the University of Mainz. She received several awards for her illustrations. For Kindermann Verlag, Dorota Wunsch has already illustrated »Squire Ribbeck of Ribbeck in Havelland«.

- A famous and much-loved scare story re-narrated for children
- Friendly and child-oriented pictures mollify the dark side of the tale
- Language appropriate for children guarantees easy access to great world literature

An Adventurous Legend

One of the best-known heroes in mythology fighting for Immortality

AGES 6+

Thrillingly, Anna Kindermann re-narrates the popular legend suitable for children and takes little readers into the adventurous world of Greek mythology. Timo Becker's modern illustrations re-brighten the classic history.

The Twelve Labours of Hercules
after Gustav Schwab
Anna Kindermann, Timo Becker
40 p., 22 x 30 cm

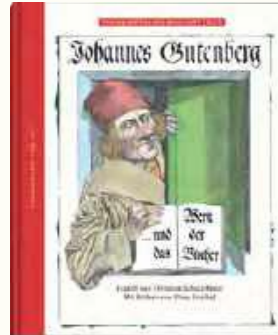

Timo Becker, born in Hamburg in 1988, already worked as an illustrator for various publishers during his design studies at Münster University of Applied Sciences. After graduating, he went on to illustrate children's books, games and series, as well as teaching in Berlin and Kassel. Today, the multiple award-winning designer and illustrator lives with his family in Hamburg.

- Modern illustrations re-brighten the classic history
- Twelve exciting adventures for boys and girls
- First introduction into the mythical world of legends

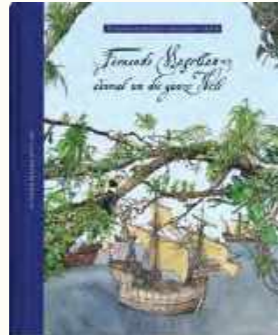

The Lives of Famous People for Little Explorers

An exciting introduction into the life of popular personalities for small adventurers! Thrilling time travel into the past with many historical details and true happenings narrated by Christine Schulz-Reiss.

Johannes Gutenberg and the Printing Press
Illustrations: Klaus Ensikat

Fernando Magellan and the Circumnavigation of the Globe
Illustrations: Klaus Ensikat

The Mysterious Life of Leonardo da Vinci
Illustrations: Paolo Friz

EACH VOLUME
Ages 8 +
36 pages
21 x 26 cm

- Playfully getting to know historic heroes
- Contemporary history adventurously told
- Colourful illustrations bring the former century to life

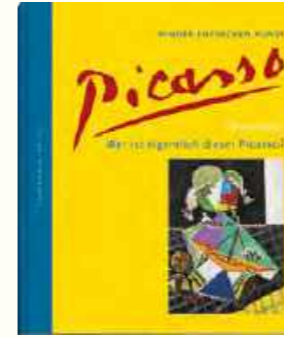

AGES
5 +

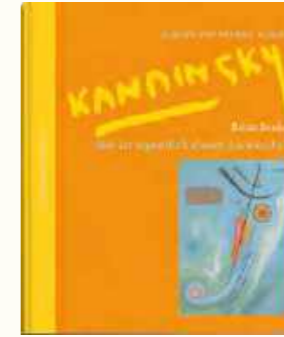

Of Martin Luther's Theses of Wittenberg
Meike Roth-Beck, Klaus Ensikat
44 p., 24 x 29,5 cm

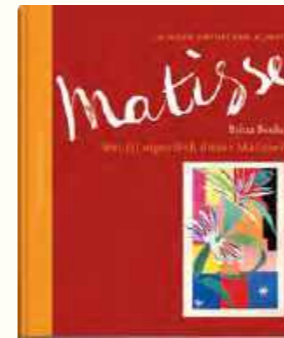

Who is ...

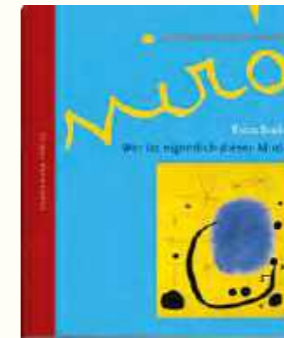

... Picasso?

... Kandinsky?

... Matisse?

... Miró?

EACH VOLUME
Ages 6 +
44 pages
22 x 26 cm

Art historian and middlewoman Britta Benke comprehensibly presents life and work, colours and materials, stiles and themes of the greatest modern artists. The fun when experiencing art is always in the foreground.

- For small and curious artists that like to paint
- Workshop page inside the book actively involves children
- Brings great art into every children's room

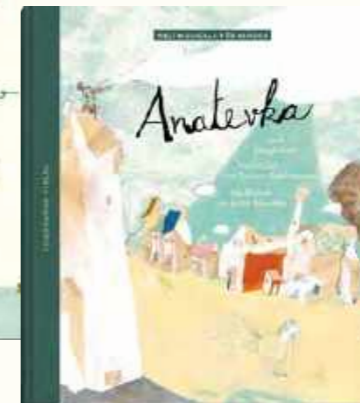

MUSICALS FOR CHILDREN

Popular musicals for the whole family – re-narrated by Barbara Kindermann and lovely illustrated by famous artists.

My Fair Lady
after Alan Jay Lerner
Illustrations: Silke Leffler

Anatevka
after Joseph Stein
Illustrations: Jenny Brosinski

EACH VOLUME
Ages 7 +
36 pages
25 x 28 cm

- Timeless classics from theatre and movie
- Playful preparation for the first visit to the theatre
- Perfect addition to the well-known musical songs

Famous Classics Re-narrated

Faust
after Johann W. von Goethe
Illustrations: Klaus Ensikat

Götz of Berlichingen
after Johann W. von Goethe
Illustrations: Bernd Mölck-Tassel

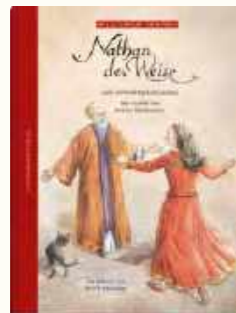

Hamlet
after William Shakespeare
Illustrations: Willi Glasauer

Clothes make the Man
after Gottfried Keller
Illustrations: Sybille Hein

Macbeth
after William Shakespeare
Illustrations: Anna Severynovska

Nathan the Wise
after Gotthold E. Lessing
Illustrations: Maren Briswalter

The Robbers
after Friedrich Schiller
Illustrations: Klaus Ensikat

Romeo and Juliet
after William Shakespeare
Illustrations: Christa Unzner

The Rider on the White Horse
after Theodor Storm
Illustrations: Sabine Wilharm

A Midsummernight's Dream
after William Shakespeare
Illustrations: Almud Kunert

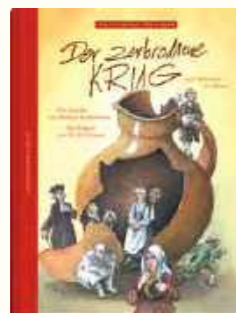

The Tempest
after William Shakespeare
Illustrations: Sonja Wimmer

Much Ado about Nothing
after William Shakespeare
Illustrations: Almud Kunert

Wilhelm Tell
after Friedrich Schiller
Illustrations: Klaus Ensikat

The Broken Jug
after Heinrich von Kleist
Illustrations: Willi Glasauer

Exciting classics of world literature re-narrated by Barbara Kindermann. With unique illustrations by nameable artists, these stories create a very special reading experience.

EACH VOLUME
Ages 7+
36 pages
22 x 30 cm

- Easily comprehensible language
- Playful entry into world literature
- Quotes from the original text are italicised

Classical Poetry Beautifully Illustrated By Well-Known Artists

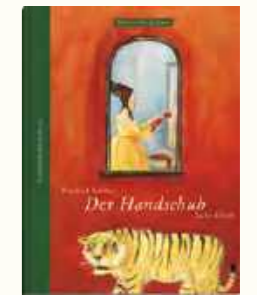

The Bridge by the Tay
by Theodor Fontane
Illustrations: Tobias Krejtschi

The Hostage
by Friedrich Schiller
Illustrations: Jenny Brosinski

The Erking
by Johann W. von Goethe
Illustrations: Sabine Wilharm

The Glove
by Friedrich Schiller
Illustrations: Jacky Gleich

Squire Ribbeck of Ribbeck ...
by Theodor Fontane
Illustrations: Dorota Wünsch

John Maynard
by Theodor Fontane
Illustrations: Tobias Krejtschi

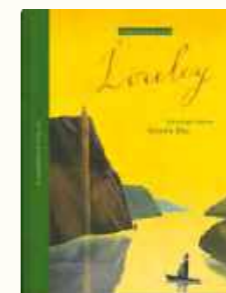

The Carousel
by Rainer Maria Rilke
Illustrations: Isabel Pin

The Lad on the Moor
by Annette von Droste-Hülshoff
Illustrations: Reinhard Michl

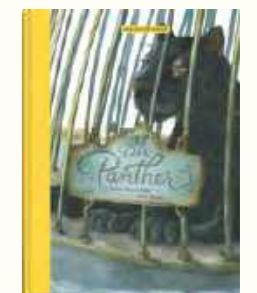

Santa's Little Helper
by Theodor Storm
Illustrations: Klaus Ensikat

Loreley
by Heinrich Heine
Illustrations: Aljoscha Blau

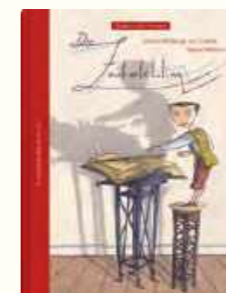

Easter Promenade
by Johann W. von Goethe
Illustrations: Klaus Ensikat

The Panther
by Rainer Maria Rilke
Illustrations: Julia Nüsch

The Diver
by Friedrich Schiller
Illustrations: Willi Glasauer

The Sorcerer's Apprentice
by Johann W. von Goethe
Illustrations: Sabine Wilharm

Classical ballades turn into thrilling expeditions because of their detailed illustrations and can be experienced with the whole family.

EACH VOLUME
24 / 36 pages
21 x 28 cm

- World-renowned rhymes for the youngest
- Popular ballades easily comprehensible due to congenial illustrations
- Children get a sense of sound and rhythm of the German language

KINDERMANN VERLAG
Danckelmannstr. 13, 14059 Berlin
Tel.: +49 30 - 89 757 111
Fax: +49 30 - 89 753 653 www.kindermannverlag.de facebook.com/

kindermannverlag

instagram.com/
kindermannverlag

pinterest.de/
kindermannverlag

Status: December 2023 illustrations/pictures may vary