I DRAW WITH COLORED PENCILS WITH YEOJIN

Je dessine aux crayons de couleur avec Yeojin

Crafts & hobbies

Yeojin Seo

THE BOOK

Step into Yeo Jin's delicate and creative world!

What if you took your box of colored pencils out of the drawer again?

A beautiful wildflower bouquet, a floral dress, a charming vintage plate where you once enjoyed a slice of lemon meringue pie... These little everyday delights—learn how to draw them with Yeojin!

By following the numbered steps and curated color palettes, you'll be able to recreate adorable illustrations to decorate your journaling pages, greeting cards, birthday notes, or any creative project.

Plus, you'll get 4 sticker sheets to personalize your creations even more.

KEY ARGUMENTS

- A book that builds on the successful step-by-step kawaii drawing formula, making a more refined illustration style accessible to a wider audience.
- Closely aligned with the popular journaling trend, it features journal-style pages filled with inspiration, tips, and creative prompts to encourage daily drawing.

THE AUTHOR

Yeojin Seo is a Korean illustrator and the author of several bestsellers in South Korea. Married to a Frenchman, she has a special connection to France—its cuisine, its landscapes, and its charm. Her delicate, nostalgic illustrations have already captivated a large audience.

PÂTÉ EN CROÛTE

Pâté en croûte

Cooking

Frédéric Le Guen Geffroy

Delphine Amar-Constantini

THE BOOK

Once associated with the image of a rustic dish, the pâté en croûte is once again shining brightly on the finest tables, seducing more and more connoisseurs.

Enthusiastic chefs and craftsmen now offer a wide range of versions of this « charcuterie pastry », featuring meat, foie gras, vegetables, fish or seafood, and there are even dessert versions of pâté en croûte!

Follow Frédéric Le Guen-Geffroy's technical advice and recipes to make pâté en croûte like a chef!

KEY ARGUMENTS

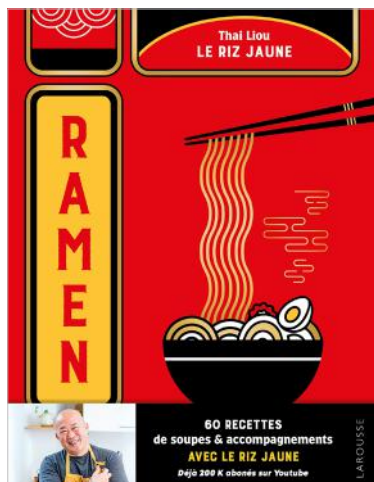

- 70 recipes from the 2023 Pâté en Croûte World Champion and a dozen guest chefs.
- The main techniques demonstrated step by step: lining a mold, preparing and pouring a jelly, creating decorations...
- The World Pâté en Croûte Championship, held since 2009, has played a major role in restoring the dish's former glory. Some creations are true edible works of art, and their flavors reflect the latest culinary trends.

THE AUTHOR

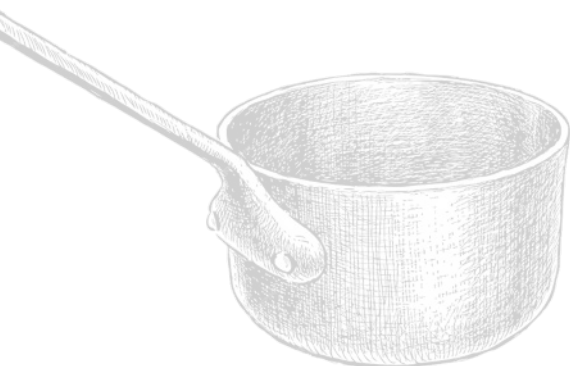

Originally from Dinard, Frédéric Le Guen-Geffroy found his culinary calling early. After training at the Lycée Hôtelier, he refined his craft in top establishments on the Côte d'Azur and in Paris. Now head chef at the Fédération nationale des travaux publics, he developed a passion for pâté en croûte, drawn by its complexity and elegance. After two fourth-place finishes at the World Pâté Championship in Lyon, he returned in 2023 and claimed the title.

PASTRY WORKSHOP FOR YOUNG AND OLD

Pâtissez avec vos enfants!

Cooking

Fanny Mahou

THE BOOK

Does your child or tween love getting hands-on in the kitchen? Then this book is the perfect gift! Whether you're closely involved or just keeping an eye from afar, depending on their age and skill level, you can support them as they bake treats that are as beautiful as they are delicious.

Madeleines, raspberry mille-feuille, mini cream puffs, strawberry charlotte... Forget plain yogurt cake or basic shortbread, these are real "grown-up" recipes your budding pastry chefs will be proud to make! Designed to be followed independently or with a parent, the instructions are simple and, when needed, include helpful tips and techniques.

KEY ARGUMENTS

- Fanny Mahou designed her book to perfectly match the needs and reactions of children and young people, an age group she knows well, both as a former teacher and as a mother.
- The book also includes a variety of bonus content: fun facts about famous pastries, quizzes, activities around spices, and more.

THE AUTHOR

Fanny Mahou was a school teacher, she has always had a passion for pastry-making. She decided to change her life and devote herself entirely to her passion. Today, she runs workshops designed for all levels and all audiences, and perfects her skills with the best pastry chefs.

BROKEN PUSSY

Self-help & well-being

Mathilde Piton

THE BOOK

This book is the testimony of a young woman in her thirties on her infertility journey. The aim of this unvarnished account, written with a great deal of humor and self-deprecation, is to make visible a pathology that is invisible from the outside, and often lived in solitude, as it is difficult to talk about this condition with those close to you.

Organized chronologically, this book covers: the many trials and tribulations of infertility: invasive screening tests (hysterosalpingography, hysteroscopy), restrictive treatments with side-effects that don't always produce results...

Women who have, or will resort to assisted reproductive technology will recognize themselves in these pages and find comfort and hope in them. After several years of trying, Mathilde is pregnant!

KEY ARGUMENTS

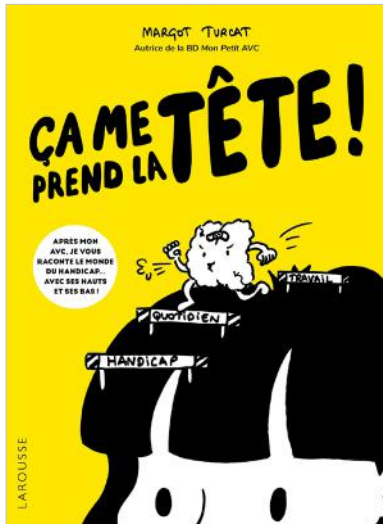

- A public health issue: 1 in 8 couples, i.e. almost 3.3 million French people, seek help for infertility.
- A book that breaks the silence surrounding this taboo subject.

THE AUTHOR

Mathilde Piton has lived in Boston since 2012. A former practical editor at Larousse, she launched her own French-language guided tour company and writes numerous travel guides all over the U.S., notably for the Guide Vert. Since 2022, she has made her living writing - in French and English - and giving writing courses.

IT'S GETTING ON MY NERVES

Ça me prend la tête!

Self-help & well-being

Margot Turcat

THE BOOK

In 2018, 33-year-old Margot suffers a stroke and suddenly enters the world of disability. After rehabilitation, lingering after-effects reshape her entire life: how can she continue teaching art, care for her baby, and plan a future with her partner?

Faced with endless administrative hurdles and a society slow to adapt, Margot must reinvent her life from the ground up.

With humor and sensitivity, she offers a candid glimpse into her daily reality—between grieving lost dreams, confronting systemic absurdities, and embracing the desire to make the most of this new chapter.

KEY ARGUMENTS

- Disability, a subject that directly or indirectly concerns a great many people.
- Author-illustrator Margot Turcat is a legitimate voice in the world of disability, and a leading figure on stroke.
- Her first comic, Mon petit AVC, was a great success, selling over 6,000 copies.

THE AUTHOR

Margot Turcat is an art teacher based in Bordeaux. She tells her story and campaigns for better treatment of stroke and disability to help those affected.

MY FIRST-YEAR ALBUM

L'album de ma première année

Parenting

THE BOOK

A delightful album to remember the wonderful moments of your baby's first year.

The first months of a baby's life are filled with unforgettable moments: the very first smile, the first steps, the little habits that are created...

This album has been designed to help young parents collect these magical moments, month after month, throughout their child's first year.

Tender and beautifully illustrated, this book lets you record the big moments, add photos, write anecdotes and slip in mementos like the birth bracelet.

Each page invites you to capture the emotion of everyday life, with spaces dedicated to baby's progress, little quirks, discoveries and first times. Plus, step-by-step cards to immortalize the first 12 months.

KEY ARGUMENTS

- A great gift for a new baby!
- Almost 300,000 copies of Baby's album sold!
- Bonus: with 6 step cards!

PHILOSOPHY IS FOR YOU TOO!

La philosophie, c'est pour vous aussi !

General knowledge

THE BOOK

Understanding Rousseau's philosophy through Netflix, Stoicism through the Covid crisis, or Freud's concept of sublimation through Rocco Siffredi... Sounds impossible? Think again!

This book is built on a simple conviction: most people are genuinely interested in philosophy, but feel like philosophy wasn't made for them.

By blending fictional narratives, current events, and pop culture, Charles Robin makes the ideas of the greatest thinkers—from Antiquity to today—accessible to all. Far from the intimidating jargon of academia, yet with rigor and precision, this book has a clear goal: to finally reconcile you with philosophy.

A former private tutor, Charles Robin is a philosophy popularizer.

KEY ARGUMENTS

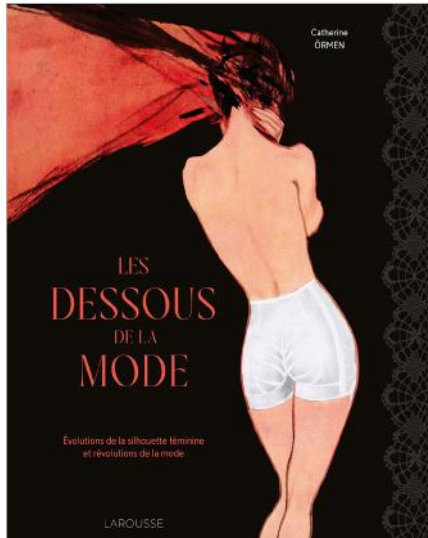

- A modern and practical approach that breathes new life into philosophy — a book that's easy to read and jargon-free
- Proven success of popular philosophy books

THE AUTHOR

Charles Robin has worked for over ten years as a private philosophy tutor. He is committed to making philosophical thought clear, accessible, and relevant to everyday life. This book invites readers to rediscover philosophy as a living discipline—one that can illuminate how we see the world.

UNDERNEATH OF FASHION

Les dessous de la mode

General knowledge

THE BOOK

Since the century of Louis XIV, clothing and undergarments have played a key role in the incessant transformation of feminine appearances.

These variations are the result of a skilful complementarity between intimate tops and bottoms, often invisible and therefore little-known, but nonetheless decisive in how the body is perceived and viewed.

What are the mechanisms that have forced women's bodies to achieve waists that are constricted to the point of fainting, but also plunging throats and widening hips? How did accessories such as hats, shoes and bags help shape looks and posture?

Ribbed bodies, corsets, bras, girdles, crinolines, baskets, stomach belts... these structures have artificially constructed the silhouette, influencing fashions, looks and "norms".

KEY ARGUMENTS

- Sublime iconography, with reproductions of exceptional pieces from the collections of the Musée Carnavalet and the Musée Galliera.
- 22 animations open each chapter: under a woman's silhouette, the lingerie she might have worn shapes her body.
- A book with an original approach, elegant and chic.

THE GREAT HISTORY OF GASTRONOMY

La grande histoire de la Gastronomie

General knowledge

Loïc Bienassis

THE BOOK

The reference book on French gastronomy: you'll devour it! What did the kings of France eat at their royal banquets? When and how was whipped cream invented? What did people eat during the Renaissance? Where did restaurants come from?

This richly illustrated book offers a comprehensive and fascinating panorama of the culinary and table arts, from medieval times to the present day, from the brilliant inventor Auguste Escoffier to today's greatest chefs, such as Pierre Hermé and the Pic family. It tells the colorful, flavor-filled story of France's greatest dishes and most prestigious desserts, as being one of the most emblematic part of French culture!

KEY ARGUMENTS

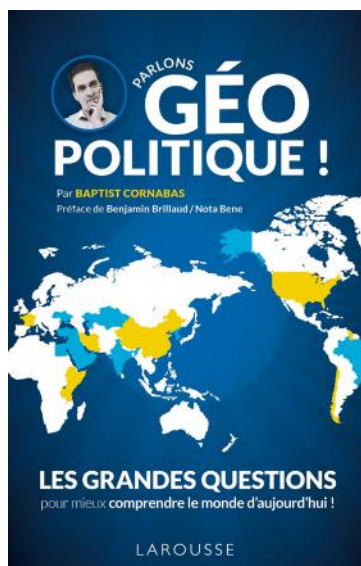

- A beautifully illustrated book on a powerful and fascinating theme!
- Highlighting the origins of emblematic dishes, ancestral culinary traditions and the secrets of great chefs...
- The media coverage of cooking and its great chefs through TV shows has led to a renewed interest in the world of gastronomy.

THE AUTHOR

A History graduate, Loïc Bienassis' research initially focused on the diplomatic history of the early 17th century. His current position has led him to take an interest in the history of food, with a particular focus on the notions of gastronomic and culinary heritage.

LET'S TALK GEOPOLITICS

Parlons géopolitique!

General knowledge

Baptist Cornabas

Nota Bene

THE BOOK

Why are there two Koreas? What's happening in Venezuela? Why are so many of our maps misleading? Is Turkey part of Europe? Is the Aral Sea the world's greatest ecological disaster? And why do so many conflicts seem to converge in the Middle East?

These are complex questions that resist easy answers. In a world more interconnected and fragile than ever—where yesterday's borders fuel today's tensions, where political systems are shifting, and where small regions can disrupt global stability—Baptist Cornabas rises to the challenge.

With clarity, insight, and accessibility, he offers a compelling exploration of the major geopolitical issues shaping our world today.

KEY ARGUMENTS

- A brilliant popularization of today's major geopolitical issues.
- A richly illustrated book to learn at a glance.
- An essential book for deciphering world news at a time when international crises occupy our screens and our conversations.

AMAZING LOUIS PASTEUR

Incroyable Louis Pasteur

General knowledge

Ivan Kiriow

THE BOOK

Born in Dole in 1822, Pasteur perfected vaccination by inoculation with cultures of attenuated bacteria. Thanks to Pasteur, anthrax and rabies, which caused many deaths every year in France, could now be treated.

Alongside his work on infectious diseases, the scientist also made several discoveries, including pasteurization, a process for preserving food by heat. Today, these discoveries are so well understood that we've forgotten who made them and how!

Clear, elegant and richly illustrated, this book will give you the keys to understanding Louis Pasteur's work and inventions, which have become absolutely essential in today's world.

KEY ARGUMENTS

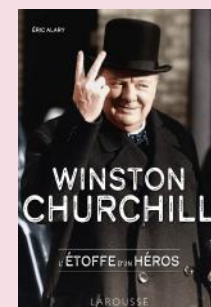

- A new collection of history books for learning and understanding the essentials of major scientific discovery.
- A clear and beautifully illustrated book for the general public.
- An essential book for understanding the impact of science on our daily lives.

BRAIN-TRAINING NOTE-BOOK FOR SENIORS – 150 GAMES TO STIMULATE YOUR NEURONS

Cahier de jeux seniors – 150 jeux pour stimuler ses neurones

Games

THE BOOK

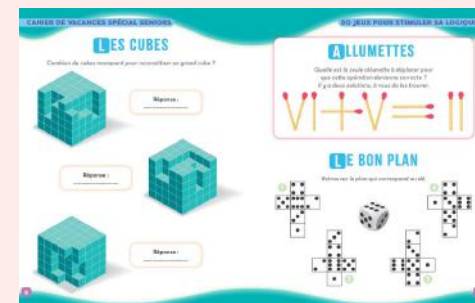

Coded messages, words to cut, place or cross out, jumbles, crosses, memo-quizzes, who am I?, charades or lotto, darts tournaments, sudokus, logigrams or logicarts...On these pages, you'll find 150 varied games with levels of difficulty to suit all tastes!

As you play, you'll strengthen your powers of deduction, your concentration and your sense of observation... While some of the games are best enjoyed at the drop of a hat, others can be enjoyed at leisure, taking your time. All have the same objective: to awaken your mental alertness, stimulate your neurons and entertain you at the same time! Ready to take up the challenge and engage in some healthy brain gymnastics?

KEY ARGUMENTS

- Notebooks for adults: a successful and growing segment.
- Altogether brain-training and entertainment.
- Awaken your mental alertness and improve your attention span and concentration! Ready for the challenge?
