Baby Inside, Baby Outside

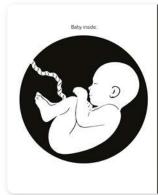

22.5 X 28 CM • 20 PP • FRENCH • BOARD BOOK WITH ROUND CORNERS €14.95 • 6 MONTHS+

From birth to their discovery of the world, babies alternate between a comfortable and safe "inside" and an exciting "outside".

A soft and poetic theme for this high-contrast board book, beautifully illustrated in a both very graphic and very tender way by renowned Antoine Guilloppé. This beautiful large-format book is perfect to gift to a newborn. Powerful and evocative images, alongside poetic text engage the five senses for a truly sensory reading experience!

Antoine Guillopé studied at the École Émile Cohl in Lyon. He started by illustrating numerous novel covers before publishing several children's books as both author and illustrator. With Pleine Lune, he launched an incredible series of laser-cut books at Gautier-Languereau. Many of his books have received literary awards and he won a Bologna Ragazzi Awards Special Mention, Sea category, in 2024 with Pleine Mer. He now lives in Paris.

TESS ALEXANDRE, ILL. BY HIFUMIYO

16 X 16 CM • 30 PP • FRENCH • BOARD BOOK €13.00 • 12 MONTHS+

A tender and warmly vintage board book that explores the body and its five senses, while subtly also introducing little ones early on to intimacy and consent.

"Look at your mouth and its contours. With it, you can... Shout with joy or speak softly. Taste, savour, or spit it all out! Give a kiss if you want to."

Throughout the pages, the different senses are explored - sight, taste, touch, hearing, smell - before expanding to the whole body and its wonderful possibilities that everyone should cherish.

Tess Alexandre is an author and editor. After Love(s) shortlisted for the 2022 Cendres Teen fiction award, she chose to address very young children with her second book, Yours Only, continuing to explore themes close to her heart: the body and consent. Both titles are published by Les Éditions des Éléphants. She lives in Montreuil near Paris, France.

HifuMiyo is a Japanese graphic designer and illustrator, graduated in screen printing from Kyoto University of the Arts. Living in France since 2010, she works for the press and children's publishing (Seuil, Albin Michel, Les Arènes...). She lives in Couzon-au-Mont-d'Or near Lyon, France.

Hello, Autumn! Hello, Seasons! - series

MANON BUCCIARELLI

13 X 16.5 CM • 30 PP • FRENCH • LIGHT BOARD LEPORELLO CLOSING WITH A MAGNET • €14.90 • 2+

A new stylish accordion vocabulary book series about the seasons.

On one side of this first volume in the series, the child explores an autumn landscape; on the other, they name the 15 things they spotted along the way: a chestnut, a sunflower, wellies, mushrooms, a grape harvester... Children can then have fun spotting these elements again in the scene.

Marvellous Poo

MATHIS

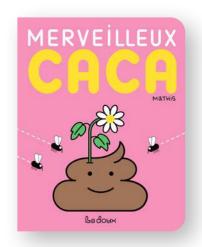

22.5 X 28 CM • 20 PP • FRENCH • BOARD BOOK WITH ROUND CORNERS €14.95 • 2+

A number one read about number two!

Blending early learning and non-fiction, Mathis invents a hilarious and informative "poo-talogue" to satisfy every child's endless fascination with poo.

In short: a book that meets every urge!

- With his sharp wit, boundless creativity, humour, and deep understanding of toddlers, Mathis delivers an inventive book that will have both children and adults in stitches.
- A universal theme brilliantly explored through an engaging mix of comic strips, factual pages, mininventories and even a song!
- An endlessly re-readable book and a future classic.

Children's books about poo? Been there, done that. Usually, it's all about potty training or avoiding constipation. But this one is a breath of fresh air (...) the rounded illustrations in this large board book are playful without slipping into crudeness or toilet humour, striking a fine balance between information and entertainment. (Special mention to the three white poos that turned out to be cleverly disguised meringues - we were completely fooled.) Marvellous Poo restores the reputation of droppings by highlighting their role in ecosystems, offering an educational yet light-hearted approach. Don't hesitate - dive in. - Libération

Little Pebble

HECTOR DEXET

20 X 28 CM • 24 PP • FRENCH • HARDBACK BOARD BOOK WITH DIE-CUTS AND FLAPS • €23.90 • 2+

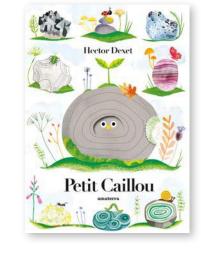

A poetic book, with cut-outs and flaps, that tells the story of a little pebble's journey through time and nature.

"I waited a long time for this moment. They call me Little Pebble. I'm just an ordinary stone – or at least, that's what I thought..."

So begins the story of Little Pebble. This endearing character takes us on an incredible adventure: from a forgotten stone, he becomes a meteorite, a mountain, a pebble, a tool... until he finally discovers his true nature - a precious stone.

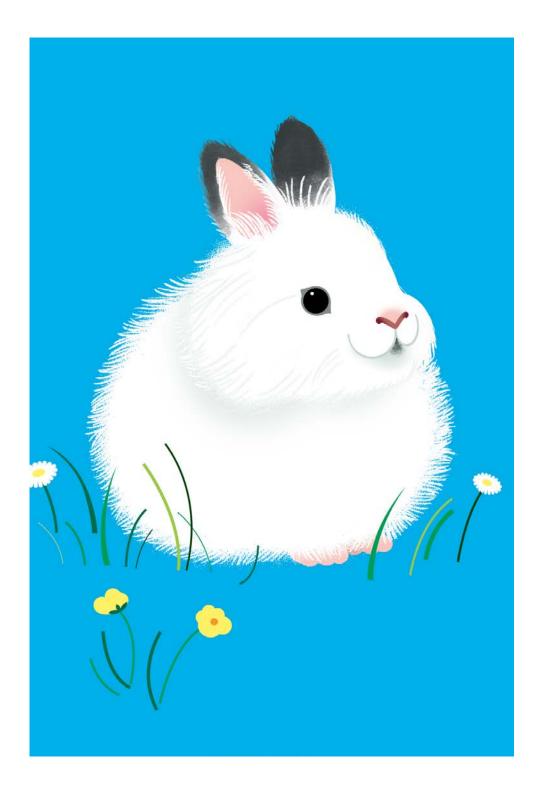

As the story unfolds, he finds his place and his purpose, within nature and alongside humans.

A beautiful new title by Hector Dexet whose books have been published into 14 languages and sold 360,000 copies worldwide.

Momo and Mumu – series

NADINE ROBERT, ILL. BY OBOM

12.6 X 12.6 CM • 24 PP • FRENCH (CANADA) • BOARD BOOK CAN$13.40 • 6 MONTHS+

> MOMO AND MUMU, PLOP!

Two babies, one pacifier... and a lot of laughter!

When Mumu cries, Momo offers a toy. When Momo cries, Mumu tries in turn. But what they both really want... is the same pacifier! From misunderstandings to bursts of laughter, emotions flow, gestures mirror each other, and an unexpected exchange finally brings peace. A tender story, built like a visual and musical nursery rhyme, that perfectly captures the dynamics of toddlerhood: trial and error, mimicry, frustration - and those very first steps toward sharing.

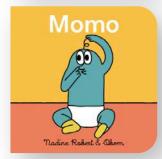

> MUMU COPIES MOMO

Two babies, a game of imitation... and a bond that leads to a tender surprise. Mumu and Momo are inseparable twin babies. They watch each other and copy eachother in this universal game that sparks their very first discoveries. Their bond deepens until an unexpected surprise - a bird hidden in a sock - transforms their story into a burst of poetry. A joyful and tender board book that celebrates the magic of little discoveries and the wonder of growing together.

66 Short stories about everyday life, full of tenderness and mischief. - La Revue des Livres pour Enfants

Sophie Guerrive was born in 1983 in Marseille (France) and studied art in Aix-en-Provence then illustration in Strasbourg. She took part in various newspapers, magazines, fanzines. Since 2007, she has published several comic and illustration books. Besides her short and minimalistic stories influenced by comic strips like Peanuts or Mafalda, she also works on larger and very detailed drawings inspired by medieval illumination, oriental miniatures or Japanese prints. Her stories are often tinged with adventure and absurd humour, and feature her favourite themes: the marine world, initiatory journeys, the ancient and medieval periods, and visual and narrative symbolism. She received the prestigious FIBD Angoulême award for her children's comics series The Friends Club.

A taste for absurd humour, a great delicacy tinged with melancholy, a compendium of philosophical and existential thoughts... Guerrive has a unique talent for observing details - about things, about people - Le Monde, about her exhibition

The Great Book of Laughter

LAURA WITTNER. ILL. BY JOAQUÍN CAMP

19 X 27 CM • 40 PP • SPANISH • HARDBACK • 4+

How do we laugh? When and where? Find it all out in this first illustrated handbook, about how laughing makes us laugh and about how laughing makes us laugh at the fact that laughing makes us laugh.

Is there anything better than laughing? Laughter brightens everything. It is like a song, a round of applause, a jump: we break into it, even at the most unexpected times.

With humor and complicity, this book celebrates the magic of laughing together and shows how valuable it is to learn to laugh at ourselves in order to look at life with more lightheartedness.

Telepathy

JAIRO BUITRAGO, ILL. BY JAQUE JOURS

19 X 27 CM • 44 PP • SPANISH • HARDBACK • 4+

Choosing the same game, drawing with the same colors, raising their hands at the same time. Every time he thinks or does something... she does too. The protagonist doesn't quite understand what's happening to him and his friend. His sister has a theory: it's telepathy. Could that be it?

A sweet story to understand that sometimes the closest connection to a friend can feel wonderfully surreal, but that it's also good to have different tastes and views... This tenderly illustrated book is also a joyful immersion in a child's mind, both brimming with scientific curiosity, and open to believing the most incredible theories.

Jaque Jours is a Mexican illustrator who likes to write and paint stories with traditional techniques. She has worked on projects for brands and editorial illustration for periodicals and digital projects. In 2023, she was awarded a FONCA (National Foundation for the Arts and Culture) fellowship by the Mexican Government to make her first picture book: The Muéganos. She studied Architecture & Interior Design, and she's currently working on a thesis to obtain a Master's Degree in Literature. Both things led her to discover her passion for painting and illustrating books. In 2023 she was a finalist in the third edition of the BOit! International Illustration Contest and with BOit! her illustrations were exhibited twice at the Bologna Book Fair (in 2024 and 2025)

Winter Swallow

ELEONORA GARRIGA, ILL. BY PABLO LUEBERT

19 X 27 CM • 40 PP • SPANISH • HARDBACK • 4+

Shhh... The other swallows don't know, but Adela has a plan: this fall she has decided to stay and she is ready to experience winter for the first time.

A funny and witty story that seeks the reader's complicity with winks and intelligent irony, about the importance of trusting oneself, of not giving up, facing adversity, of overcoming one's fears, and the joy of friendship!

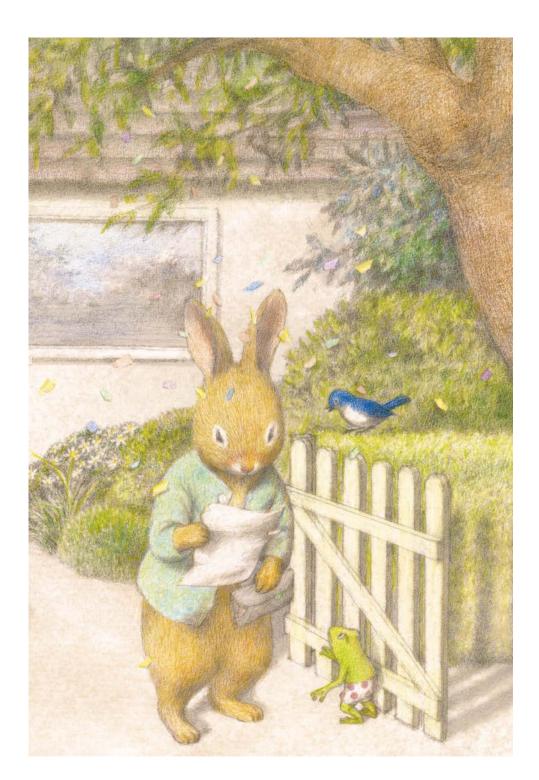

The vibrant color palette and original patterned layouts contrast with the characteristics of the coldest season of the year, making this story as warm as hot chocolate by the fire.

If I Discover a New Path

WAI MEI WONG. ILL. BY KORNELIJA ŽALPYTĖ

20.3 X 27.9 CM • 40 PP • FRENCH/ENGLISH • HARDBACK • 5+

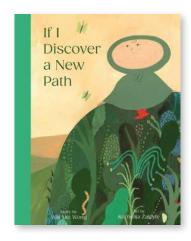

A poetic manifesto, filled with wonderment, about embracing the many adventures on life's path.

Have you ever stood face to face with an opportunity to do something truly amazing - or something outside your comfort zone, or even just something fun - and simply said, "why not?"

If I Discover a New Path is a poetic manifesto for this amazing thing called life, for embracing the many adventures laid out on the path ahead of us. Delicately written with care, this story holds our hand through one life's journey and reminds us of the wonderment that awaits us when we're willing to experience it.

A great conversation starter about anything that stems from hesitation: facing fears, trying new things, or making an effort with difficult tasks.

Wong's text flows beautifully and offers inspiration to young readers to keep an open mind about new experiences in their own lives.

Wai Mei Wong is a Canadian children's book author and former early childhood educator. Her first book Hello, Dark was a finalist for the 2022 IODE Jean Throop Book Award and chosen as a 2022 Canadian Children's Book Centre Best Book for Kids & Teens, while her 2024 release I Love Myself was given a feature TV segment during a 2024 episode of CBC's Kids Book Club. Lucy and the Wind

GRÉGOIRE LAFORCE, ILL. BY YVAN DUQUE

20.3 X 25.4 CM • 40 PP • FRENCH/ENGLISH • HARDBACK • 5+

Every morning, Lucy heads to the forest to go exploring. Along the way, she collects things from nature that fascinate her, placing them carefully into little jars that she stuffs into an increasingly full backpack. But on one particular day, Lucy encounters something unexpected: she hears the wind speaking to her.

Thinking she can simply coax the wind into one of her jars, much like her other souvenirs from the forest, she instead finds herself being led on an unforgettable adventure by a force of nature. When she arrives at a moment of truth, however, and reckons with having to let go of her backpack full of jars, an important realization about the environment begins to set in.

A poignant text serves which reminds of the significance of the natural world and the need to preserve it rather than trying to own it or tame it.

The Garland

JULIE MUGICA, ILL. BY SÉBASTIEN PELON

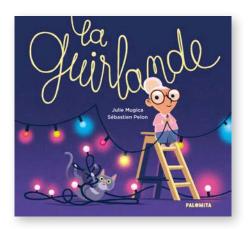

26 X 28 CM • 32 PP • FRENCH • HARDBACK • 4+

From their flat, Carmen and her cat peacefully begin a long journey through the winter. "I need a garland," thinks the little lady. "A garland to brighten my days." The glowing light will unveil memories of the past and rekindle the small, slumbering flame within her.

Once installed and lit, the glowing string brings back all of Carmen's forgotten memories - sunsets, boat cruises, bicycle rides... Remnants, pinned to the wall, bearing witness to a happy past life.

Then, quite suddenly, the little lady realises that there are still a few metres left - and still a little space left on her wall...

This is the story of a little light - the one that lives inside each of us. With warm illustrations that play with shadow, light, and colour, it is a gentle and hopeful tale of a new beginning.

I Will Not Be Scared

JEAN-FRANÇOIS SÉNÉCHAL, ILL. BY SIMONE REA - COMME DES GÉANTS (FRENCH) 20.3 X 27.9 CM • 40 PP • 5+

A potent story about the power of talking through our fears to set ourselves free of them.

As a young rabbit tries to fall asleep one night, kept awake by the trauma of his family's past life in a war-torn region, he replays scenes in head of an entirely new battle: being attacked by bullies the previous day at school.

An extraordinary piece to be shared with utmost care.

- Kirkus Reviews

A cautiously hopeful conclusion rounds out this potent text.

Les oiseaux de Barbara

Barbara's Birds

LUDOVIC LECOMTE, ILL. BY ANDREA ESPIER - LA CABANE BLEUE (FRENCH) 21 X 27.5 CM • 32 PP • 4+

Barbara weeps each day for her sailor husband, gone never to return. Until one rainy morning, she hears the chirping of a canary in a shop. Curious, she brings the bird home - and little by little, soothed by its sweet song, she begins to rediscover joy in life. But as sunlight slowly returns to Barbara's heart, the bird falls silent. Trapped in her grief, trapped in a cage... in the end, is there really any difference?

Text by Ludovic Lecomte, winner of the Bernard Versele award for Oscar & Carosse. Art by Andrea Espier: Bologna Book Fair Illustrators Exhibition, BRAW Amazing Bookshelf, finalist for the 2025 Golden Pinwheel Young Illustrators Competition.

Moufle

Sophie Guerrive was born in 1983 in Marseille (France) and studied art in Aix-en-Provence then illustration in Strasbourg. She took part in various newspapers, magazines, fanzines. Since 2007, she has published several comic and illustration books. Besides her short and minimalistic stories influenced by comic strips like Peanuts or Mafalda, she also works on larger and very detailed drawings inspired by medieval illumination, oriental miniatures or Japanese prints. Her stories are often tinged with adventure and absurd humour, and feature her favourite themes: the marine world, initiatory journeys, the ancient and medieval periods, and visual and narrative symbolism.

The Friends Club - series

#Z)

SOPHIE GUERRIVE • 4048 (FRENCH)

17 X 23 CM • 60 PP • FRENCH • HARDBACK • €16 • 5+

The cutest and most endearing characters in children's comics, in seemingly naive, humourous, inventive and tender adventures! Telling the evolution of a great friendship through delightful fantasy adventures, this series is a little treasure.

> THE MONSTERS' PARTY (5)

From hazelnut to rosehip, the Friends Club is stocking up for the winter... But this forest is a strange one, and soon, Tulip and friends are lost! When a storm rolls in, they take shelter in a dark, isolated tower - and those crumbling old walls might just be hiding a few frightening residents... Menacing ghosts, gloomy spectres, and monsters of every kind take centre stage in this new adventure, in which the three friends learn to look beyond appearances - and welcome a surprising visitor into their home...

> THE WEEPING MOUNTAIN (4)

Who is stopping the water from reaching the valley? Could it be the strange little people who love to tidy up everything between sky and earth, including water and animals? Or could there be another source, as adorable as it is inconsolable, for all these misfortunes? Whatever the boiling summer sun, the Friends Club will be setting out to conquer the Weeping Mountain and solve these mysteries!

> THE CLUB AND THE BEAR (3)

Suddenly stuck in the snow, the Friends Club have no real shelter. Tulip, Crocus and Violet therefore go looking for another house... This time, seeing them grow and move away from the nest, the reader will be seized with deep concern. Could this be the end of the Friends Club?

> THE FIRST HIBERNATION (1), THE GREAT RAIN (2)

Crocus the little snake hugs his mother and goes on an adventure... On his way, he finds nuts, apples, mushrooms, but above all a friend: Tulip the bear. Together, winter will be milder and the Rude Monster will be less scary. On top of that, Violette the little bird has a great idea: to create a club, a «Friends Club»! They discover the world and learn to grow hand in hand: who is "jackcrac- roc" when spring arrives? and what to do when Tulip disappears? These little trials build their friendship... and when it's too scary, Tulip's mother and her walnut pies are never far away!

Everything Amplified

ZIGGY HANAOR, ILL. BY SARAH LIPPETT • CICADA (ENGLISH)
21 X 26 CM • 300 PP • ENGLISH • HARDBACK • £19.99 • 13+

"Sometimes everything feels heavy and uncomfortable.

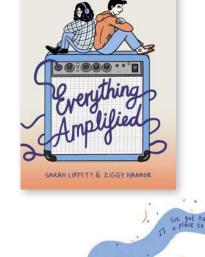

My body, my family, my life... And the only thing that releases that weight is music..."

A fresh, authentic narrative about sibling dynamics, identity, the complexities of teenage life, and the ways in which young women find their voices. The story also highlights key female artists of the past 50 years, opening the minds of young readers to a journey of musical discovery.

Nel is 15 years old and life is a grind. High school exams are exhausting, social pressures are relentless and adults are oblivious. Somehow Ludo, Nel's handsome twin brother, seems untouched by it all, gliding effortlessly through life's complications. Her best friend, Kit, and her playlist are pretty much the only things Nel's got going for her right now.

When Ludo joins a band and Kit starts going out with the guitarist, it feels like even the tiny space Nel has carved out for herself is in peril. But nothing is forever, and teenage life can turn on a dime.

When Nel finds herself taking Ludo's place in the band, she has to work out whether life outside the shadows is all it's racked up to be. Sometimes you need to follow the music to find your way back to yourself.

A high-energy, emotionally charged graphic novel that doesn't slow down. It gives readers a story that feels recognisable, while also providing a way to think through questions of friendship, independence, and identity. Its multimedia style, mixing artwork, dialogue, and digital fragments, captures the pace of modern teenage life. Raw and gripping, this standout graphic novel presents a world teenagers will relate to and empathise with. The language, feel, and atmospheric frustration are convincing elements that make this graphic novel ideal for 14+ year olds. (...) Highly recommended. - School Reading List, UK

> PAULINE, THE BIG CHILL (vol.3) Pauline and Albert embark on a mountain trip. Pauline, scared of the slopes, faces a series of comical mishaps, while Albert tries to outshine her.

Through ups and downs, she discovers her inner strength, and their rivalry gives way to a touching moment of solidarity. With humor, suspense, and a hint of mystery - thanks to a curious little bear - this story offers fun and life lessons for all ages.

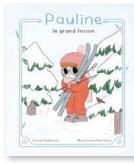

PAULINE AND THE ZIPOCLIC (vol. 2) Pauline discovers the true value of human relationships in our consumerist society.

The newest toy craze, the Zipoclic, is making waves in the schoolyard - and Pauline is completely spellbound! She insists that her parents buy her the popular toy, but they remain firm. When Pauline gets her first pair of glasses, she's tempted to trade them for her object of desire. Can Pauline distinguish what she wants from what she needs?

> A PLACE FOR PAULINE (vol.1)

A poignant comic book that gently introduces the subject of finding one's place in the world.

As the eldest child of four, Pauline struggles to find her place in her family. Fortunately, she has built a secret hideaway in her crowded house where she brings all of her precious belongings and gives free rein to her imagination, deeply nourished by her readings.

SOPHIE GUERRIVE - 4048 (FR) - 24 X 32 CM • 28 PP • FRENCH • HARDBACK WITH HEADBAND, 4 COLOURS + 1 PANTONE • HOTSTAMPING & DIE-CUT ON COVER • €18.00 • 4+

Tulip has vanished again!

Violet and Crocus are hot on the trail. Has he wandered off down the paths, scaled mountains, and trudged through the desert in search of some magical place? Or is this yet another sneaky trick from Big Bear, lurking in his cave?

Unless, of course, the rude monster Malpoli, the Swamp Sluggard, or some other bizarre creatures - like the blissoires or those ghastly libégoules - are responsible for this mischief!

One thing's for sure: you'll need a brave heart (and maybe a good pair of binoculars) to keep up with the Friends' Club on their grand adventure. Will you be able to spot them in these wildly detailed, action-packed pages?

With the characters from The Friends Club successful comics series: winner of the Angoulême FIBD award, and published in 10 languages.

Flush It Down The Story of Sewers Through Time

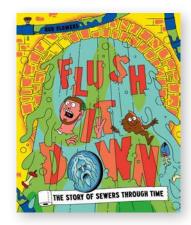

ROB FLOWERS

23 X 28 CM • 40 PP • ENGLISH • HARDBACK • £14.99 • 8+

Excavating the dirty truths of human waste (and its disposal) through history.

Hold your nose and dive into the smelly but fascinating world of sewers! From the mighty Cloaca Maxima of Ancient Rome to the revolting, waste-filled streets of the Middle Ages, and on to the ingenious pipes and tunnels of Joseph Bazalgette's Great London Sewer, this book uncovers the gross - and great - history of how humans have dealt with their dirty business.

Waste management is at the forefront of conversations today, and this book is a great complement for history and STEAM curriculums. With hilarious, colourful illustrations by Rob Flowers, Flush it Down is packed with fun facts, weird tales, and thought-provoking discussions around the problems of human waste and how we can deal with the challenges facing us today. It's a wild, wacky ride through the city's underbelly - no rubber boots required!

Rob Flowers is an illustrator, character designer and director who channels his love of vintage toys, pop culture and psychedelic colours into award-winning illustrations. His clients have included Ribena, Bird's Eye, The New York Times, A Bathing Ape and Nike. He is the author of Festival Folk (Cicada, 2018).

Scream if you Want to Go Faster The History and Science of Amusement Parks

PETER MORRIS, ILL, BY ROOZEBOOS

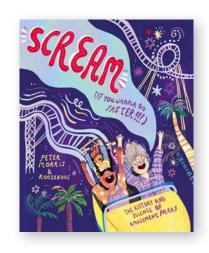

23 X 28 CM • 48 PP • ENGLISH • HARDBACK • £14.99 • 7+

Hold on tight and enjoy the thrills and spills of fairgrounds through ages!

Step right up for an all-access pass to the past, present, and pulse-pounding mechanics of the fairground! This book uncovers the rich history behind theme parks – from the Charter fairs of the Middle Ages to the grand spectacles of Victorian steam-powered rides, through to the wild days of Coney Island and the opening of Disneyland. Meet the inventors and dreamers who applied the forces of physics to create heart-stopping thrills.

The science of fairground rides is illuminated with clear explanations of how a steam engine works, for example, what forces are at play on a Ferris wheel and a swing boat and why rollercoasters don't need engines to soar.

The pages are brought to life in the beautiful, warm illustrations of Roozeboos, whose bright colours and energetic linework capture all the fun of the fair. A perfect gift book for young historians, budding scientists and thrill-seekers alike. Hold on tight and enjoy the ride!

Roozeboos, also known as Anne Roos Kleiss, is a Rotterdam-based illustrator who graduated from the Cambridge School of Art MA in Children's Book Illustration in 2020. She brings a child-like curiosity to her playful, detail-packed illustrations. She has illustrated books for publishers including Blossom Books, Scholastic, Groundwood Books and Pelckmans.

Homes from Above

DAVID MARCHAND & GUILLAUME PRÉVÔT, ILL. BY ATELIER LUGUS
21 X 27.5 CM • 32 PP • FRENCH • HARDBACK • €18 • 8+

For thousands of years, humans have shaped nature to suit their way of life. To understand how humans build and live in various contemporary homes around the world, the lively text describes the lives of fictional local characters.

From Arequipa, the White City built at the foot of a volcano, to the Mongolian steppes roamed by the Tsaatans and their reindeers, passing by the stilt houses of the Bajau and the ultra-urban sprawl of New York, each landscape invites us to reflect on our relationship with nature.

On the Path to Equality Investigate Injustice

AMAYA RENAUDIN, ILL. BY CLÉO GERMAIN

21 X 27 CM • 36 PP • FRENCH • HARDBACK • €17 • 8+

An interactive title to raise children's awareness of injustices: Gender discrimination, social, economic and regional inequalities, discrimination related to disability, origin or physical appearance, global inequalities...

Through six immersive investigations rooted in their daily lives, children are invited to: Identify and deconstruct stereotypes; Recognise the mechanisms of inequality and exclusion; Understand the impact of these injustices on others - and sometimes themselves; Develop their power to act, at their own level, with empathy and critical thinking.

A documentary-style investigation that addresses the issue of injustice and explores, to better fight them, the links between stereotypes, inequalities and discrimination, all from a child's perspective.

It offers a three-step approach - observe, understand, act - designed to awaken critical thinking and empower children aged 8 to 11.

Edited in partnership with the Observatoire des Inégalités, ensuring reliable data and expert insight into the mechanisms driving inequality.

Gold at His Knuckles From Cassius Clay to Muhammad Ali

ÉLÉONORE CANIAU-DERACHE, ILL. BY MARC DANIAU

24 X 33 CM • 40 PP • FRENCH • €16.00 • 8+

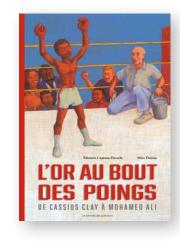

A magnificent picture book that retraces the story of one of the greatest athletes of all time, an iconic figure in African-American history: the boxer Muhammad Ali.

In the heart of segregated 1950s America, Cassius Clay trains to fulfil his dream: to become the greatest boxer of all time!

He racks up victories, but that does not stop the man who renamed himself Muhammad Ali from continuing to face contempt from white people because of his skin colour, his conversion to Islam, and his refusal to take part in the Vietnam War.

In a finely balanced dual narrative, the author alternates between the point of view of young Cassius Clay, the future Muhammad Ali, and his coach Joe Martin, who takes him under his wing from the age of twelve - unaware that he is training one of the greatest champions in history.

An accurate and inspiring portrait of an iconic figure in African-American history. - Biblioteca

My Little Ice Brother

IRÈNE COHEN-JANCA. ILL.BY GIULIA VETRI

17 X 22 CM • 72 PP • FRENCH • 8+

An overlooked page of Russian history, set in the hardship of the kolkhozes, where a glimmer of light emerges through the budding friendship between two children.

After the Red Army enters Riga, Nita and her mother are deported to a kolkhoz in the USSR. Amidst famine and freezing temperatures, Nita meets Ivan, a little boy with whom she will now live. The two form a deep and touching friendship, until Ivan - her "little ice brother"-falls seriously ill.

Through the voice of a child- a sensitive and intimate perspective favoured by the author throughout her work

- Irène Cohen-Janca tells a story of exile, separation from a father, and life in the kolkhoz. At the heart of this relationship, born out of hardship, this short illustrated novel is carried by a style of writing that is both striking and moving.

Giulia Vetri's illustrations bring softness and poetry to the narrative.

By the same author, picture book A Tiny Little Toy was a 2023 BRAW amazing bookshelf title, and shortlisted for the 2025 Bernard Versele Award.
