"With Yahweh."
"Who?"
"With God!" Dorothy explains even more quietly.
"Why are you whispering? What kind of secret is that? I keep asking because I'm very curious."
Directly you see heads in place nervously and whips in an even quieter voice if the wind blew from the Vistula, I wouldn't be able to hear her at all.
"It is somehow so important that we're not supposed to say his name out loud. That's what right Simeon says. And he's very wise."
"I see." Dorothy replies.
"Although I don't quite understand. And just to say, I change the topic." I like you heads."
"Oh, I got them from the Alfus brothers. Pretty, aren't they? I have to pin them on the dress and my hat."
"I see." Dorothy replies.
I have to explain that the Alfus brothers have a small carnival costume factory nearby, my Natasia. It's since it is marvelous, I'm telling you. Square, oval, diamond, embroidery and colorful beads that see even on the carnival and other costumes. I would like someone to hand such heads on my branch one day, similar to those Dorothy is wearing round her neck.
